Gems' hopes fade

Tuesday night's Junior B playoff hockey game between the Georgetown Gemini and the Vaughan Raiders was marred by a number of fights. The Gemini lost at the Alcott Arena 5-2 to go behind in their best-of-seven quarterfinal series three games to none against Vaughan. The fourth game in the series was scheduled for last night (Thursday) in Vaughan. (Herald photo)

As March quickly approaches and another ice season winds down, several local hockey teams are still vying for local, league, and provincial titles. As well, there are a collection of special events at the arenas to attract and treat both the figure skating and hockey fan alike.
 Headlining the attractions is the Hockey Heritage Oldtimers' Game at the Gordon Alcott Arena, Sunday, March 1 at 3 p.m., featuring the Detroit Red Wing Oldtimers and the Toronto Maple Leaf Oldtimers.
 Other major events of interest are the Georgetown Minor Hockey 27th Annual Bantam Tournament from March 14-21 at the Alcott Arena and the annual Acton Atom Tournament at the Acton Arena, March 20-22.
 The two local Figure Skating Clubs are presenting Carnivals this year. These Carnivals are a must to see for young and old alike. Great costumes and themes as well as the outstanding performances of local talent on ice should not be missed.
 March Break brings FREE public skating to your local arena courtesy of the Acton Rotary Club and the Georgetown Optimist Club. When you see your local service members please say thanks. For dates and times of the skating sessions please refer to your brochure, flyer or call the arena.
 In April, mark your calendar to attend two special events, Georgetown District High School Reunion Game on April 10 and the All Ontario Juvenile "AA" Championships featuring the Georgetown Juveniles.

 Over-30 Ball Hockey will once again get into full swing April 28. Now is the time to make your contacts if you are interested in playing this season. Games are Tuesdays at the Georgetown Memorial Arena. Please call Jeff Bitton, 877-5815, ext. 262, for Ball Hockey information.
