IN THE NEWS

Many professions have their own special vocabulary. Fill in the blanks to complete the words that identify parts of the newspaper article. Now look at an article in your newspaper and locate examples of each term.

(Ans: I. headline, 2. byline, 3. lead, 4. jumpline, 5. cut, 6. cutline)

FUNNY FRAMES

Newspapers are read for information and for pleasure. One of the most popular parts of the newspaper is the comic strip pages. Put the mixed-up comic strip frames below in the correct order by writing on the line under each frame the numbers 1-3. Write the name of the comic strip on the line above the frames.

Books about Newspapers

I Know a Newspaper Reporter by Lorraine Henriod. Grs. 2-4. A little girl visiting a newspaper office learns how stories are written and watches machines print the newspaper.

The First Book of News by Sam and Beryl Epstein. Grs. 4-6. Simple and concise text traces the history of man's answer to the question, "What is news?"

News or Not? Facts and Feelings in the News Media by Ann E. Weiss. Grs. 6-9. A lively discussion of how the news media has developed and how well it functions.

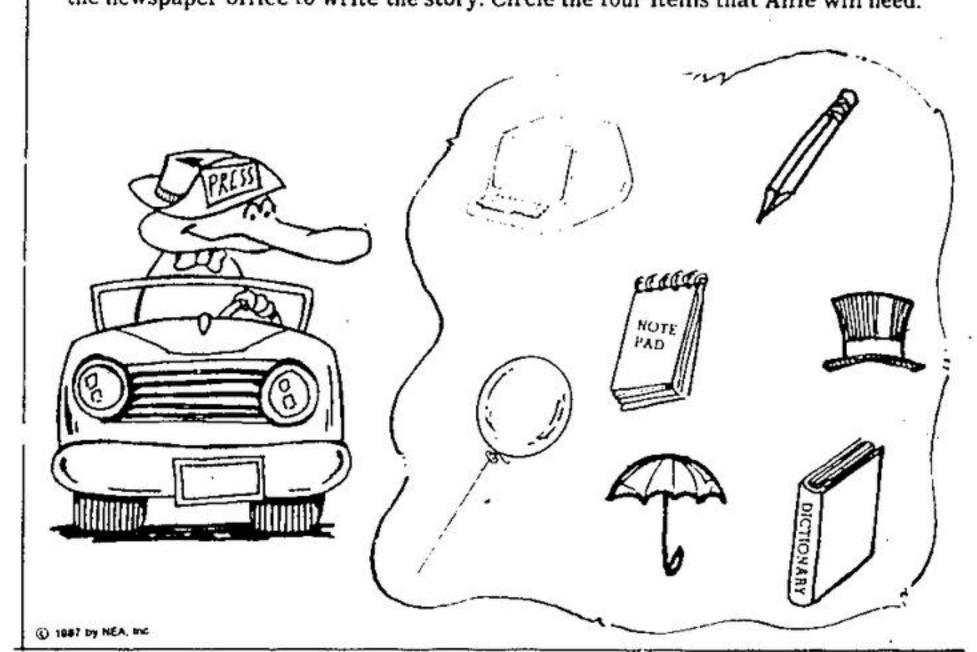

Whatever your interests, there is something in the newspaper for you. You're sure to enjoy your favorite section of the newspaper, and you might find others that you enjoy just as much.
