Remember when?

This, the year of the Georgetown High School reunion, seems the right time to add a little more youth nostalgia.

It was the bowling season of 1960-61 when youth bowling started at the now defunct Lucky Strike lanes on Mill Street. We had our first meeting in the basement of the old Georgetown Library where those attending learned how to keep score.

The young people elected their own executive and team captains and from that time managed everything themselves. They even arranged the end-of-season banquet and invited my wife and I as guests. The bowlers provided the food and played their own dance records.

The accompanying photo was taken at the banquet. After seeing them all season in their everyday clothes, I remember being a little shocked by how sophisticated they looked. I was glad I had never called them kids.

Harvey Chappell, the owner of the lanes was generous with prizes and Bill Anderson Sr. kept the lanes working smoothly. The Herald did their part by publishing the scores and standings each week. I daresay there were many proud moments when the bowlers saw their high singles and triples posted in the paper.

Although I remember them all individually, I cannot recall all their complete names, so I decided not to name any. Their parents, relatives and friends will recognize them readily enough.

To all the bowlers of that Lucky Strike youth league, wherever you are, I hope you fared well. (Submitted by Harry Haylock)

History re-enacted for Day of Prayer

By KAY WILSON

NORVAL—The centennial year of the World Day of Prayer in the Norval Community was observed March 6 at the Norval Presbyterian Church.

The World Day of Prayer is observed annually by Christians in more than 170 countries and regions, linking major denominations in a common service of prayer.

The theme Come and Rejoice included a skit, depicting the year 1887 at the home of Mary Ellen James, of New York, who called for a national day of prayer for home missions. Eleanor McClure, dressed in authentic costume, lit a lamp to represent a flame, held a rose as a symbol of life and rotated a globe to indicate world wide participation and included reading from Luke 14 and a prayer.

Marilyn Micklethwaite, dressed in a long white gown, and wearing wide brimmed hat, portrayed Bessie McMurchy, who called together women of Anglican, Baptist, Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian faith, in 1918, which led to the first interdenominational prayer service, in the hope that the movement would flourish and spread like the prophesy of old. Marilyn quoted the Bible: "The wilderness and the solitary places shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as a rose." Wilma Archdeon and Isabelle McClure related how the day of prayer had become world wide.

Several people who read about world day of prayer events in countries around the world were: Anne Handford, Betty Johnson, Gwen Laidlaw, Jean Creighton, Glen Laidlaw, Marion Laird, Kay Wilson, Dorothy McLean and Kathy MacLellan.

Mary Bond and Sandra Sutherland presented a skit entitled A Cause for Celebration in which an enthusiastic sister, persuaded a doubting sister to attend the World's Day of Prayer service.

Margaret McClure coordinated the program and presided. Doris Sharpe was Pianist. Birthday cake was served and a social hour followed.

Lions treat seniors to roast beef, piano man

NORVAL—Senior citizens in an area surrounding the Huttonville Lions Club were treated to dinner March 6 at the Huttonville Community Centre.

Dinner music was provided by pianist Fred Bootle of Georgetown. President Chris Arthey welcomed all and later introduced the Lions Club members.

A beautiful roast beef dinner with all the trimmings was set up and served by the Lions members and their wives. Several lucky draws were made, following the dinner and winners were: Elza Kudrasovs, Harry Clark, Jean Brander, Harry Bécham, Adelaide Clark, Claude McLaughlin, Gord McMurchy, Vera Laidlaw, Clarence Ostrander, Jean Creighton, Francis Thompson won a dinner for four at Someplace Else.

President Chris announced the spring craft and antique show and sale April 11, 12. This is one of their main money-making projects to support Canine Vision, Huttonville Baseball Association and Pinegrove Soccer Association as well as many others.

Entertainment was provided by the Nohleton Old Time Fiddlers who played toe-tapping music as well as singing several country-style numbers.

Singer Zoe Kendall of RR2 Norval kept everyone's attention singing her Ray Soria type songs and wartime hits. All seniors agreed it was a super night with many thanks to the Huttonville Lions Club.

$1 BILLION SPECIAL CANADIAN GRAINS PROGRAM.

You Only Have Until March 31st to Act

Recently, Prime Minister Brian Mulroney announced the $1 Billion Special Canadian Grains Program. This will help farmers hurt by low world grain and oilseed prices caused by the trade war between the European Community and the United States.

Details are as follows:

1. Farmers who have recently received a federal corn, soybean or winter wheat stabilization payment have had applications mailed to them. That form must be completed and returned by March 31st.

2. If you are a qualified producer but haven't received an application form, pick one up from:

- Offices of Members of Parliament
- Feed mills
- Farm Credit Corporation Offices, Agriculture Canada offices and research stations
- Elevators

3. Eligible crops are: wheat, barley, oats, rye, mixed grain, grain corn, soybeans, canola, flax and sunflower seeds for crushing. Pedigreed seed, high moisture corn, high moisture barley and farm fed grain (except silage) are also covered.
