

Herald picture parade

The Wizard of Oz (played by Jim Whorley) is seen here giving some friendly words of advice to the cowardly lion (Paul Gardner) and scarecrow (Angle Cook). The students of Centennial Public School are performing the popular musical all week at the John Elliott Theatre.

MPP reviews term

By DON KNIGHT, MPP
Halton-Hurlington

One of the busiest sessions of the Ontario Legislature prorogued on February 12, 1987, the second session of the 33rd Parliament at Queen's Park spanned 123 days over 27 weeks. During this session, 112 bills were dealt with, of which 61 lead to royal assent. The House will return in April for a new session.

Through the interim, 12 committees will be sitting to deal with a variety of issues such as acid rain, pay equity, retail store hours, and pensions.

Labour Minister Bill Wrye introduced draft amendments to the Occupational Health and Safety Act that set out the first comprehensive revision of this act since it came into force in 1979. This Bill is a central part of the government's effort to ensure that Ontario has the best occupational health and safety record in North America. The draft amendments are designed to ensure that the obligations for work place health and safety are clear to both management and labour, and that both workplace parties have the capacity to meet these obligations. If the parties fail, these proposals strengthen the government's hand to enforce the act.

Attorney General Ian Scott is seeking leave to appeal a judgement by the Ontario Court of Appeal setting aside the conviction of Ernst Zundel. Zundel had been convicted of spreading false news contrary to Section 177 of the Criminal Code, but that conviction was set aside last month by the appeal court. Mr. Scott states that the law creating the offence under which the charge was laid was found by the court to be constitutionally valid and that the jury found that the crown met the burden of proving beyond reasonable doubt that the Holocaust had indeed occurred.

Treasurer Robert Nixon announced a temporary two-year tax reduction for farm equipment dealers. The farm equipment industry has generally not participated in the economic upturn being experienced by most sectors of the Ontario economy. The proposal will reduce to a maximum $200 the capital tax otherwise payable by farm implement dealers on their first $3 million in taxable capital. The legislation to implement this measure will be introduced following the 1987 spring budget. The change will be effective for taxation years beginning after December 31, 1986.

Finally, I have been pleased to help honor Varian Canada as Georgetown's Business of the Year and look forward to attending awards presentations for business and citizens of the year in other municipalities in the riding in the near future.
