

Herald Scoreboard

Bowling

GEORGETOWN V.B.C.
The House Round of the Combo Team Championships will be held at Georgetown Bowl at 1 p.m. on Sunday, April 5th, 1987.

JUNIORS: Tracy Weeks 787(779), Andrea McNelly 801(253), Kruty Hare 679(141), Christina Lane 565(227), Tracy Hall 562(254), Brian Bell 428(272), Robert Harrison 523(223), Scott Smith 502(225), Eddie Doyle 589(226), Alex Bertrand 539(196), Tod Hare 541(281).

SENIORS: Julie McCorry 749(283), Trina Bassett 723(272), Sharron Lusnds 678(266), Tracy Pegate 649(211), Christa Bird 621(220), Hare Bassett 609(253).

BANTAMS: Laura Doyle 458(158), Amanda Hare 460(169), Tanya Martin 430(163), Alan Laroque 421(163).

PEEWEE: David Fogg 391(148), Bryan Foster 366(129), Paul Laroque 295(116), Scott Bentley 293(117), Owen Barton 289(112), Ronald Gaffey 281(97), Monica Beauparlant 302(131), Janice Somers 294(113), Jennifer Doyle 290(101), Jennifer Armatage 281(108), Hollie Cairns 279(107), Amy Wila 277(108).

SHOOTERS: Matthew Walker 332(129), Jennifer Cabral 225(121), Alison Hutchins 251(87), David King 240(95).

GEORGETOWN "HOT SHOTS"
Christian Reformed League: Evelyn Baker 72(319)
Men's League: Gary Bell 752(307), Ron McGowan 705(241)
Smith and Stone, Marg Brownau 781(266)
Wed. Mix League: Wendy Parent 788(251)
Dowling League: Lynn Sutton 249(240), Ellen Inoue 124(221)
Club: Trovador, Rejean, Belanger 788-791, Gertjan 678-697, 244, Denise Gravelle 610-224.

GOLDEN AGE BOWLING
March 27, 1987
High Single Flat

Nora Turk	219
Kay Brochu	206
Tres Williams	242
George Barr	222
High Single with Handicap
Kay Brochu	276
Walter Bow	273
Len Walker	253
Bob Harris	255
High Triple Flat
Nora Turk	544
Fraser Zander	509
Tres Williams	627
Bill Crawford	621

High Triple with Handicap

Nora Turk	694
Ellis Mills	663
George Hunter	477
Len Walker	609
TEAM STANDINGS
Happy Gang	110
Cornet Pins	107
Head Pins	102
The Jet Set	90
Hellbenders	81
The Leads	87
Blue Jays	82
Oroles	82
Short Shots	71
The Hopefuls	70

Acton bowling

ACTON FRIENDS BOWLING LEAGUE
March 25, 1987
Ladies High Single

Susan Poulton	270
Pat Hoque	Men's High Single	243
Tracy Clarke	Ladies High Triple	309
Pat Hoque	Men's High Triple	612
Tracy Clarke	Other High Singles	254
Eileen Lott		221
George Fougere		224
Josie Parker		217
Carol Jodan		214
Other High Triples
Lillian Farrow		17
Carol Jodan		162
George Fougere		169
Maria Malton		179
Susan Poulton		221

FINAL STANDINGS

Team	W	L	PTS.
Acton Bowling Club	41	11	59
Acton B.C.	41	11	56
S.A.N. Ball	40	11	51
Frank Parker	39	12	53
Johnson Associates	37	19	53
Dave Whiting Homes	37	19	40
F.A.D. Bowling Inc.	31	43	44

Acton Bowling Club was the league champion.
*Play-It Again today (Wednesdays) and conclude next week.

These atom hockey players received individual awards Saturday. From left, Shawn Kelman, Vezina Trophy; Dave Kotsos, Most Valuable Player; Stephen Yurichuk, Rookie of the Year; and Brian Hayes, Lady Byng winner.

Richard Hennessey, a player with Tim Horton's was the winner of the Most Improved Player award for novice.

These players were honored Saturday for their play in the pee-wee division. From left, Trevor Lewis, rookie of the year; Dan Fratnik, MVP; and Stephan Lacroix, Lady Byng.

Robbie Brown, left, was named Most Improved Player in the pee-wee division, while Reid Scott won the Vezina Trophy for novice.

Hockey champions enjoy time in the limelight

The Georgetown Minor Hockey Association held its annual Day of Champions Saturday to decide who would reign as champions in the various house league levels.

The entire day proved to be a great success as exciting hockey action was provided at all levels.

A summary of the games and the names of the individual award winners follows.

Tyke
Montego 4 Optimists 3
Montego scored three times in the final period after the Optimists held the lead throughout most of the rest of the game.

Stevie Koloff scored all four goals for the winners, while Matthew Burns and Robert LaRose contributed an assist each. The winning goal was scored by Koloff with just 30 seconds left on the clock.

Thomas Arnold had a pair of markers for the Optimists, while Ronnie Shoebright added the other, and Paul Farmer chipped in with one assist.

The Most Valuable Players in the Tyke division were Ronnie Shoebright, Steve Koloff, Cheryl Rivard, and Ashley Monckton. Receiving trophies as the Most Improved Players were Timmy Williams, Mark Quaglia, Joey Goodhew, and Danny Cabral.

Novice
Lions Club 5 The Herald 1
The Lions Club won the Trish and Terry Richmond Trophy after they got off to a 2-0 lead in the first period over The Herald, and led 3-0 at the end of the second.

Maric Venditti led the Lions with four goals, while Gary McLean had the other marker. McLean also had three assists, and Samantha Jepson added one assist.

Brad Davidson had the lone reply for The Herald, assisted by Andrew Beaven and Steve Smith.

The winner of the MVP award for the novices was Wesley Burke, of Young's, while the MIP award went to Tim Horton's Richard Hennessey. The Lady Byng award to the Most Sportsmanlike Player was taken by Steven Sheppard of the Hockey Moms, and Reid Scott of the Lions Club copped the Vezina Trophy as top goaltender. The Rookie of the Year award went to Steve Smith of The Herald squad.

Atom
Chicken Villa 2 Kinsmen 1
All the scoring in the atom final was confined to the second period, as Chicken Villa scored goals just a minute and a half apart to take a 2-0 lead, and the Kinsmen replied with just over two minutes remaining in the middle frame.

Steve Melykutny scored Chicken Villa's first goal on an unassisted effort, and Dorey Boudreau had the other on assists by Melykutny and Tyson Hacklett.

Jeremiah Fendley scored for the Kinsmen from Jason Quinn and Joe Stephens.

The Chicken Villa atoms were presented with the A.E. LePage Trophy.

MVP honors went to David Kotsos of the Kinsmen, while Shannon Morris of Varian won the MIP trophy, and Brian Hayes of Chicken Villa was presented with the Lady Byng. Shawn Kelman of the Kinsmen was named recipient of the Vezina Trophy and Steve Yurichuk of Halton Hills Tire won the Rookie of the Year award.

Pee-wee
Carpet Barn 8
Neil's Music Centre 2
The Carpet Barn opened up a 4-0 lead early in the championship game and coasted from there, to win the A.E. LePage Trophy.

Brad Duly led the attack for the winners as he scored four goals and added one assist. Pete Gumboz chipped in with three goals for Carpet Barn, while Andrew Money penny added a single. Tim Heinz added three assists, Nick Kilpin and Bernard Vendetti had two assists each, and Mark Con. Phil Armstrong, and Grant Domski had one apiece.

Allan Fudge had both markers for Neil's Music while Brent Couling had two assists, and Jason Breedin added one assist.

Dan Fratnik of Trio Mark was named the MVP for the season; Robbie Brown of Murray was MIP; Stephan Lacroix of Baz was awarded the Lady Byng; Thomas Spencer of Neil's won the Vezina; and Trevor Lewis of Kentners was named the top rookie.

Bantam
Millere TV 3
Georgetown Rental 2
Georgetown Rental failed in a late comeback bid as Millere scored a goal in the opening period and two more in the second to open up a 3-0 lead.

Georgetown Rental managed to come within one late in the third frame, but were unable to get to even terms.

Matthew Moore led the winners with a pair of goals while Ron Tilstra added a single. Stuart Teetzel chipped in with a pair of assists, while Craig Burnett, Colin McMurray,

In bantam hockey this season, these players received individual awards. From left, Colin McMurray, Most Improved Player; Doug McDermott and Jeff Hannah, Most Valuable Players; and Jim Lawrence, Rookie of the Year.

Jeff Hannah and Brad Thornton had an assist each.

Travis Gardiner replied for Georgetown Rental with a goal and an assist, while Aaron Puchalski added one goal, and Ashley Bird had one assist.

The MVP honors for the pee-wee division were shared by Jeff Hannah, and Doug McDermott; Colin McMurray was named MIP; Steven Kokej won the Lady Byng; Napoleon Benito won the Vezina; and Jim Lawrence was named Rookie of the Year.

Millere TV received the Georgetown Police Association award as the bantam champions.

Midget-Juvenile
Scottabank 2
Standard Products 1
(Double Overtime)
The Midget-Juvenile match-up for the Bud Hill Trophy provided end-to-end action, as two periods of overtime were required to finally decide a champion.

Scottabank got on the scoreboard first when Martin Barnard scored from Neil Diaz in the opening period.

In the second, Standard Products came back to tie the game on a goal by Pierre Chaisson, assisted by Dave DeHaas.

The teams remained tied through regulation time, and the first five-minute overtime period.

Scottabank's Jeff McNiven finally decided the matter when he scored with just under two minutes to go in the second overtime, on a setup by Jeff Duguay.

The league's MVP for the season was Brad Klavkains from Bowman's Truck Service; George Kent of McEachern Steering Specialties was MIP; Jeff McNiven of Scottabank was the winner of the Lady Byng; John Stefan from McEachern won the Vezina, and Jim Marshall, also from McEachern, won Rookie of the Year honors.