

Championship ladies teams C
4

Licensing opens doors C
5

Karate tourney results C
7

Sports Briefs

Youth ball hockey still a possibility

This Friday marks the final day for youngsters to register in a daytime Ball Hockey League, which the Halton Hills Department of Recreation and Parks is proposing to operate during the months of July and August.

The formation of the league, however, is dependent upon enough interest being shown to make it feasible.

People are also required to volunteer for helping in the running of the league.

Anyone wishing more information should contact the recreation and parks department at 877-5185, ext. 260, by this Friday May 1.

Develop into a good leader

What are you doing this summer?

The Leadership Development program is open to youth 13 years and up.

Get the know-how and confidence to lead activities in crafts, games, sports, campfire programs and more.

This program, which is being offered by the Halton Hills recreation and parks department, will provide an excellent opportunity to build qualifications for any future job.

Deadline for applications is Monday, June 8th.
Call 877-5185, ext. 260 for more information.

Getting ready to meet the challenge

Fitness Challenge Day will be held Wednesday, May 27.

The Town of Halton Hills has challenged the Town of Milton for the fittest community in Canada.

On Fitness Challenge Day plan to exercise for 15 minutes and call the Neilson's Hotline at 873-6515 to register your activity.

Last year Halton Hills had 24 per cent of its residents taking part - get involved and have fun.

Spring adult programs update

The Town of Halton Hills recreation and parks department still has openings in the following programs:

—Creative Cookery - starts tonight

—Fitness and Fun - Thursday in Acton

Tennis Lessons - Beginner and Advanced.

For more information on how to register for these programs, please call 877-5185 ext. 260.

Cougars claw way to title

Winners in the Georgetown Ladies Basketball League were decided last Wednesday night, as deciding games were staged in both the championship and consolation series. Here, players go up for a rebound during action in the consolation match between the Capricorns and the Mustangs. (Herald photo)

The hot shooting hand of Chimp Kim led the Cougars to an exciting 56-53 come-from-behind victory over the Trojans last Wednesday night, giving them the 1986-87 championship of the Georgetown Ladies Basketball League.

The Cougars took the best-of-three final series after splitting the opening games of the set with the Trojans, making a third game necessary.

The consolation round also went the full three-game limit, but it was the Capricorns who prevailed as they downed the Mustangs 52-31, in the other game last Wednesday at Centennial School.

In the championship game, the Trojans held a slim 24-21 lead at the half, and increased on the margin early in the second.

But that was when Kim went to work, scoring most of her game-high 24 points.

The Cougars went into the lead with just a few minutes remaining, but the Trojans stayed within striking distance.

With the score 54-53 for the Cougars, it was Kim who finally closed the door for good on the Trojans. Kim was fouled and made both ends of a one-and-one bonus, to put the Cougars up 56-53.

Anita Stankus did a good job for the winners controlling the boards, and picked up 14 points along the way.

Other scorers for the Cougars included Linda Robson with nine, Kelly Forsyth with four, Jackie Dennis with three, and Laurel Heinz with two.

The Trojans were led by Tracey Yack with 20 points, while Boo Tufford added 14, and Tracy Gerber chipped in with 10. Judy Thomson contributed seven points to the Trojans' cause, while Mary Kelly and Alice Ogden had one apiece.

In the consolation match-up, the Capricorns were able to control virtually throughout the contest. At the half, it was 27-14 for the winners.

Marie Smith led the Caps with 16 points, while Carol McTaggart added 11, and Kyra Kristensen-Irvine chipped in with 10. Other marksmen included Lorraine Brown, Janet Tolton and Enid Gledhill with four each, Joanne Shorthill with two, and Sandy Scholey with one.

The Mustangs came through with a good effort in a losing cause, however, a lack of bench strength proved to be their downfall.

Laura Young had 10 points for the Mustangs, while Daiga Zelek had eight, Rebecca Caverly added six, Diane Gardiner chipped in with five, and Natalia Pacheco with two.

The G.L.B.L. will close out its 1986-87 season on Wednesday, May 6 as the teams get together for their awards banquet at the Squire's Inn in Brampton.

Team awards, as well as individual awards will be presented at that time.

Karate kids

There were some good matches in a karate tournament held Saturday at the Cedarvale gym. The tournament was held for Premier Karate students, and medals were awarded to the top competitors in various age categories. Here, one of the participants grimaces after taking a blow from an opponent. Results are on Page C7 (Herald photo)

Fishing fruitful for area anglers

See Page C5