Dave's Service Centre won the A Division of the Georgetown over 30 non-contact hockey tournament held at Alcott Arena on the weekend. The local team defeated DeHavilland of West Toronto in the championship final to claim the championship. (Herald photo)

Dave's takes tournament title

The Georgetown Over-30 Non-Contact hockey league held its third annual tournament on the weekend, with a total of 16 teams taking part. For the second consecutive year, it was the local Dave's Service Centre team taking top honors, going undefeated in four games. Dave's opened the tournament by thrashing Station House 17-1. Their second game, however, proved to be a much tougher match-up, as they had to come from behind to record a 6-5 overtime victory against a strong Orangeville entry. The semi-final contest was not much easier for Dave's as they again needed overtime, this time to subdue a hard-working Mutual Life team 2-1, in what was a defensive battle throughout. In the championship final against the 1985 tournament champion DeHavilland team, Dave's Service jumped out to an early 5-1 lead, but were hard-pressed to hang on for a 7-5 victory.

DeHavilland fought back and trailed 6-5 with less than a minute remaining in regulation time, but an empty net goal secured the win for Dave's. Scoring for Dave's in the championship game were Larry Peterson with two goals and two assists, Brian Beaumont with a pair of markers, and Bob Fotheringham, Rick Thompson, and Brian Johnston with singles. Ray Peacock chipped in with three assists for the winners. Danny Shearer led the scoring for DeHavilland with two goals and an assist, while single tallies went to Ron Smith, Gary Billing and Brian Lemon. Most Valuable Players in the contest were Peterson of Dave's and Shearer of DeHavilland. The silver medal round pitted Georgetown Midas Muffler against DeHavilland in the final, and thanks to some brilliant goaltending at both ends, the game remained scoreless until there were just 10 minutes left in regulation time. Gary Lemay netted the all important first goal for Midas, and that's the way the score remained until, with just one second remaining, Jack Wallinga popped an insurance marker into the vacant Galvcast goal. Brian McDonnell recorded the shutout in net for Midas. MVP awards for the game were presented to John Case, the goaltender for Galvcast, and Jamie Mody of Midas Muffler. The bronze medal game featured the Halton Hills Huffin' Puffers playing Norval. Ed Hillier, of the Huffin' Puffers was named MVP after leading the way to his team's 1-4 victory. Hillier scored twice and assisted on three other markers. John Kavanaugh had the hat-trick for the winners, and added one assist in a strong performance. The Norval team found themselves behind early, and they never did recover, although Wayne Hyatt's efforts were rewarded by his being named the team's MVP. The tournament committee was pleased with the results of the tournament and hoped the competition and sportsmanship was enjoyed by all. Among the sponsors who offered their generous support to the success of the tournament were Westcan Used Trucks and Equipment, Mike's Power Heating, The Kenner's Catering, Zellers, Canadian Tire Corp., M and M Pro Sports, The Toronto Sun, Bracken's Restaurant, North Halton Sports, John and Irene McCauley, Wendy's Restaurant, Shaw's Trophies, Royal Pizza, and H and H Video. Other teams taking part in the tournament included the Sunday Nites and the Derbys, both of Georgetown, Dow Demons, Malton Oldtimers, Alderwood, Canada Customs, and Bay Dukes.

Sabres hold annual meeting

The Acton Sabres junior C hockey club will hold their annual meeting and election of officers this Sunday at the Acton Legion, beginning at 2 p.m. Some of the members of the current executive have indicated they wish to step down from their positions, so the future of the team in Acton may hinge on the turnout for the meeting Sunday. The Sabres broke even on the 1986-87 season, after recouping a $1,000 deficit left over from their previous campaign.

Cougars tied in series

The Burlington Cougars and the Niagara Falls Canucks were scheduled to play the seventh and deciding game in their Ontario Hockey Association Junior B semi-final series last night (Thursday) in Niagara Falls. In a game Tuesday at Burlington, the Canucks edged the Cougars 4-3 to tie best-of-seven set at three games apiece. The winner will advance to the Sutherland Cup championship against the St. Thomas Stars, who eliminated London in the other semi-final. Burlington won the Central Jr. B championship by beating Barrie Colts in the final, and then defeated Henry Carr in quarter-final action.

As we close off the winter recreation programs at the various facilities, spring and summer activities are either in progress, or about to start. The activities at the Acton Arena from now until the end of summer include minor lacrosse on Mondays and Wednesdays, and Senior Lacrosse on Thursdays, featuring the Acton Rams home games beginning at 8 p.m. Tuesday evenings has ball hockey, featuring six Acton teams in action from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Regular activities at the Georgetown Memorial Arena include ball hockey on Monday and Wednesday evenings for the Georgetown Ball Hockey League, which has 14 teams entered this year. The 30-and-over league operates on Tuesday evening, 7 to 10 p.m., and has six teams in the league. Wednesday at the Memorial Arena will be set aside for Roller Skating Night, beginning in June. This is your chance to stretch out a few of those old muscles, or learn a new activity. Various specials for roller skating will be offered every week. Admission is $1, with skate rentals available for 75 cents. For more information on these specials, please refer to the Recreation and Parks brochure, or call the Memorial Arena at 877-9612. May 8 is a Professional Development Day, and the arena will be open for free roller skating from 1 to 3 p.m., with skate rentals available for 75 cents. The Gordon Alcott Arena will be removing the ice next week, and it will be put back in during the month of August. In the meantime, the Alcott and all the other arenas are available to rent for dances, concerts, trade shows, etc. If you wish more information on the floor rentals contact the facilities manager. The Prospect Park Pavilion opens, along with the sports fields, on Monday, May 4, and will be open every evening from 6 to 9 p.m. During July and August, the hours will be extended to from noon to 9 p.m. daily. As always, there will be fries, burgers, hot dogs and other tasty treats available. The Cultural Centre and community centres still have some dates available for meetings, parties, receptions, and performances. Information on community centres is available by phoning 877-5185, Ext. 260, and for the Cultural Centre by phoning 877-7915, Ext. 267.
