Master Forger Lived And Worked In Canada

One of philately's most skillful forgers lived and worked in Canada. He was not secretive about what he was doing, and although investigated by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, he was allowed to continue.

Andre Frodel was a master forger. Frodel was born in Poland in 1891. He grew up in Warsaw, where he became an engraver. During the First World War, he served in the Polish army.

Following the war, Frodel moved to Bulgaria to work for the Bulgarian Bank Note Company. His ability soon became apparent: in only a few years he was director of the firm. In 1939, Germany invaded Poland from the west; the Soviet Union invaded from the east. Frodel returned to his native land to again serve in the Polish army.

It was Frodel's misfortune to be captured by the Soviets and sent to a prison camp in Siberia.

Frodel was not only a master engraver, he was a smooth talker. He also spoke many languages fluently. Legend has it that he posed as a doctor, which allowed him to get away from the camp to work his way west.
