Two local volleyball players help team to bronze medal finish

Two local volleyball players filled key roles as the West Side Volleyball Club claimed bronze medals at the Eastern Canadian Midget Championships, hosted by St. Jerome, Quebec, April 24-26.

Middle player Phil Rehberg and setter Anders Schirm are students at Georgetown District High School, and play for the Oakville-based West Side squad.

The midget-aged players (born in 1971-72) are coached by John Burt and Jeff MacIntyre, while Regg Miller is head coach of the entire program, which includes players from all over the Halton-Peel Region.

The Midgets earned the right to advance to the Eastern Canadian finals after finishing second at the provincial championships a month ago.

West Side was one of 12 teams competing in the tournament, and played five matches in a pool of six teams, which was used to determine the medal rounds.

In their first best-of-three match, West Side swept a pair of games from the Selects, Quebec's top team, by scores of 15-4 and 15-12.

After this, they came up against the Astros of Gander, Nfld. and disposed of them 15-8, 15-2.

In their other matches, New Brunswick's second-place team fell to West Side 15-1, 15-1.

In their other matches, West Side downed New Brunswick's second place team (15-1, 15-1); Charlottetown, PEI (15-5, 15-6); and the hometown, St. Jerome squad (15-3, 15-6).

With a perfect record of five wins and no losses in the preliminary round, and a margin of 150 points for, and just 48 against, West Side went on to the medal round.

Receiving a bye through the quarter-finals, West Side then faced North York Spartans, and suffered their first setback of the tournament, losing games of 15-4 and 15-3.

This set the stage for a bronze medal match-up between West Side and Rimouski, Que., two teams that were very similar in style according to Coach Burt.

The first game of the match showed just how even the two squads were, as West Side found themselves trailing 14-13.

But with three straight points from the middle attack by Rehberg, West Side pulled out a 16-14 decision.

In the second game, West Side was able to identify the weaknesses of the Remouski team, and took advantage, as they rolled to a 15-5 win to sweep the match and claim the bronze medals.

Schirm was instrumental in the win, as he continually set to West Side's middle attackers in the second game. Rehberg scored three attack block points and five kills in a row to contribute to the win.

Burt had high praise for both Rehberg and Schirm.

"Andreas assumed a great leadership role in directing the team. He's an extremely coachable setter," Burt said.

The coach also describes Rehberg as "reliable and very consistent" and predicts the two quality players will lead quite a "dynasty" in the volleyball program at GDHS in the seasons to come.

The bronze medal victory for the midget squad was one of several successes enjoyed by the West Side club this year. Their juvenile squad collected the bronze medals in the provincial championships and the juniors won the gold.

The concept of club volleyball is a relatively new one, but Burt says it is rapidly catching on.

"To a large extent, the high schools have strongly supported the club concept, which helps strengthen the teams," he says.

As a result of their team's success this year, Burt and MacIntyre have been chosen coaches of a regional team, which will take in players from the Halton Region across to Windsor. The team, comprised of players born after 1969, will compete at the Summer Games, after which selections will be made for a provincial team.

"Phil and Andreas are both strong candidates to make the regional team," Burt says. "And personally, I see Phil as having the qualities for the provincial team."

Burt's comments were supported by the fact that Rehberg was one of six all-stars selected at the Eastern Canadian championships in Quebec.

Next year, Burt says West Side will have to restock its midget program entirely.

He also added there is consideration being given to splitting the Halton-Peel Region into north and south divisions, thereby giving more players the opportunity to compete.

Should this happen, Brampton, Georgetown, and Acton will be grouped together for the northern division.
