Stay Tuned for May 22 when Globe entertains us

The opening night of a show is a very thrilling experience for the cast, crew and audience. This will surely be the case when Georgetown Globe Productions' premiere of Stay Tuned occurs Friday May 22nd. The show is already a box-office hit as each of the four performances, on May 22, 23, 29, and 30, are now sold out!

The evening of Stay Tuned entertainment begins at 7 p.m. at the Elks Hall in Norval. A light buffet will be served following the show and drinks will be available throughout the evening. A specialty drink called a "Fuzzy Picture" depicts the T.V. theme of Stay Tuned.

The cast, crew and orchestra have had many enjoyable practices reminiscing the old and new T.V. programs that will be seen in the show. Commercials, soap operas, variety shows, movies and even T.V. evangelists will all be reproduced for the Stay Tuned audience. The show is a lively musical which is full of comedy, wonderful singing and of course special T.V. memories.

Tempting and teasing the Stay Tuned audience, Globe will perform a few musical numbers from their next show called Kiss Me Kate. This production will be staged in late November and it too promises to be a pleasing experience for the Georgetown theatre-goer! Don't miss Norval barbeque

By KAY WILSON
Herald Special

NORVAL-Related birthday greetings to Louie Alexander of Milton's Centennial Manor, and also to Harold Reed of Brampton. Both men had birthdays May 1.

Members of Norval United Church, from the oldest to the youngest, are busy preparing for the 20th annual chicken barbeque, to be held May 23, this Saturday. There'll be Maple Lodge chicken, home-made salads and pies at the barbeque between 4 and 8 p.m. at Huttonville Community Centre (School). Good old-time music will top the evening off. Tickets can be obtained by calling 455-8519, or from the Apple Factory or Dunlop's Insurance.

Norval's Community Church Service was held Sunday evening in St. Paul's Anglican Church. Joan Carter welcomed all on behalf of St. Paul's. Norval's three ministers: Rev. Richard Ruggie, Rev. Walter Ridley and Rev. Angus Sutherland led in the worship service, expressing thanks for a loving, caring community.

Rev. Sutherland played the guitar and led in the singing of a contemporary hymn. The offering was designated for Mozambique and will be channelled through the Menonite Relief Committee.

The hymn "The Day Thou Gavest Lord is Ended" followed the benediction. Frank Howard was organist.

Welcome home to Bruce Thatcher. He's back from heart by-pass surgery at St. Michael's Hospital in Toronto.

$5,000 damage

There was $5,000 damage caused to two cars May 13 when they collided at Mill and Victoria Streets. Nobody was injured.

The 29-year-old driver of a 1986 Volkswagen was stopped on Victoria Street then pulled out onto Mill Street to make a left turn.

The Volkswagen collided with a 1980 Ford. The driver of the Volkswagen was charged. The accident occurred at 6:20 p.m.

Misjudged turn

An Acton woman who misjudged and pulled out of the McDonald's Restaurant parking lot into the path of an oncoming car was charged by Halton Regional Police, Sunday noon.

Mayor for a day

By KAY WILSON
Herald Special

Everybody loves a parade, and Norval had the best little parade in Halton County, to celebrate Victoria Day.

The showers stopped long enough to get the parade lined up at the Hollywood Tavern and marching up Highway 7 to the Norval Community Centre.

Halton Regional Police escorted the parade, headed by flag bearers Greg Horner and Mitchell Dodd of the Second Georgetown's Cubs.

Dignitaries Halton Regional Chairman Peter Pomeroy, former Halton-Burlington MPP Julian Reed, Town Coun. Joe Hewitt and Rev. Walter Ridley followed the flag bearers.

Behind them came many Norval children with decorated bicycles and mobile toy cars with trailers, many blowns and even one ape.

A special feature prior to the parade was the presentation of a bouquet of red roses to Joan Carter. She was proclaimed honorary mayor for the day, by Mr. Reed and Coun. Hewitt. They also presented her with a scroll, and her husband Ormie Carter with a rose boutonniere.

Three vintage cars added to the parade: a 1928 Buick belonging to Malcolm Black; a 1931 Chevrolet belonging to Jack Armstrong and a 1927 Ford belonging to Spencer Wilson.

Winners of the Victoria Day draw were announced. Winning the first prize of $200 was Gordon Elen of Brampton; second prize of $100 was Pat Dias of Toronto; and third prize of $50 went to E. Gray of Toronto.

A puppet show by TV Puppetree kept the children and their parents entertained for an hour after the parade. A booth with hamburgers, hot dogs and muffins helped to satisfy empty stomachs.

The Norval Community Association would like to thank Pine Valley Farms for the roses, Maple Lodge Farms for the hot dogs, the Hollywood Tavern for the ice, and the Halton Regional Police for the parade escort.

Eight garage sales were held in Norval, Saturday, in connection with
