Legion ladies

By MUD BRUNSKI

Herald Special
Last Thursday evening the Ladies Auxiliary of the Royal Canadian Legion voted in the new executive and following is the line-up of officers for 1987-88.

President Flo Carswell, 1st Vice Monica Southon, 2nd Vice Sheila Hicks, Treasurer Marjorie Tutty, Recording Secretary Grace Harrison, Secretary Jean Reid, Sergeant at Arms Marg Clarke, Membership Jean Thomas, Sports Officer Anne Nicholson.

Your new executive are: Trudy Paul, Ruby Baillie, Mary Russell, Hazel Dumper, Kathy Watson, Marg Clarke will again be our banquet convener and this job she does extremely well. And with Trudy Paul our new kitchen convener, we know that our banquets will be in good hands.

The following positions are as yet to be filled. Anyone interested call President Flo Carswell at 877-4132. We need a telephone committee, standard bearers and a canteen chairperson. Our committee will be leaving this Friday for Plymouth Mass. to take part in their memorial day services and we wish them well and send our regards to our comrades at Post 40. To all our sick and shut-ins, take care and enjoy this wonderful spring.

Family affair

'Tis the season to be thinking of the garden, and so it was that three year old Megan Dettler and her dad Paul took a look at the green corner of the Acton YMCA bazaar May 9. The two treated themselves to fudge and shortbread from the Parent and Tot bazaar. (Herald photo)

Still in the Mother's Day spirit, Brooke Duval, 6 1/2, decides to give mother Janet a comforting grasp while she gives blood. The duo were spotted at the Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic May 11 at Holy Cross Auditorium. (Herald photo)

Still drinking and driving

Five men and one woman were charged with impaired driving last week.

Halton Regional Police charged a 22-year-old Georgetown man after a spotcheck Saturday at 1 a.m. on Main Street North at Ewing Street in Georgetown. He's to appear in Milton Provincial Court June 6.

An Acton man, 33, was also charged after a spotcheck at the same location and time. He's to appear in court July 6.

Friday, at 2:20 a.m., at Guelph Street and Maple Avenue, Georgetown, a 25-year-old man was charged with impaired driving. The Georgetown man is to appear in court June 15. Police stopped him for erratic driving.

Thursday night, at 10:30 p.m., a 42-year-old Acton woman was charged with impaired when she was found sitting in a car on Highway 7 and Churchill Road. She's to appear in court June 15.

Police beat

Scratch mark

A 1987 Ford Mustang was scratched along the side while its owner was attending a party at Weber Drive and Delrex Boulevard Saturday night.

Someone put a three inch scratch mark with a sharp object, causing $200 damage, Halton Regional Police said.

Hurled rock

A large rock was thrown through the rear window of a 1985 Toyota parked at the Georgetown GO station sometime Thursday. Damage was $250, and Halton Regional Police are investigating.

Car abandoned

Overnight Saturday, someone stole a 1967 Pontiac from the Silver Creek Shell Service Station at Highway 7 and Trafalgar Road. The vehicle is valued at $1500. Halton Regional Police found the vehicle the next afternoon, abandoned at Sideroad 22 and Eighth Line. It was not damaged.

Till theft

Someone took $52 from the cash register float at Handy's Auto Service between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. May 12, Halton Regional Police say. They are investigating the theft from the Main Street North, Georgetown, business.

No tailgate

Someone stole the tailgate from a 1981 Toyota 4 X 4 pickup between May 11 and 12 from Georgetown Toyota on Guelph Street. Halton Regional Police say it was valued at $400.

Hubcaps gone

Four hubcaps were stolen from a 1985 Pontiac parked at the Royal Bank parking lot at Main and Mill Streets in Georgetown around 4 p.m. May 12. The hubcaps were worth $200, Halton Regional Police said.

Radio gone

A Normandy Boulevard, Georgetown, family learned not to keep anything valuable in a tent, Friday night. Someone stole a $200 radio from a tent in the yard, Halton Regional Police said.

Camp gear theft

A Raylawn Court, Georgetown, family was robbed of a tent, axe and miscellaneous other camping equipment from a trailer parked at the rear of their property, Halton Regional Police said the stolen items were valued around $150.

Mower stolen

A gas barbecue and power lawn mower were stolen from the yard of a Beaver Street, Glen Williams, family. Halton Regional Police said the theft took place sometime between May 6 and 9 and the items were valued at $500. Police are investigating.

Ex-wives call

Friday night seemed to be the night for drinking and then visiting your ex-spouse. Halton Regional Police charged two Georgetown men with being intoxicated in a public place after their ex-wives called police.

A 36-year-old man was charged at 2:30 a.m. at Sideroad 22 and Eighth Line when his visit was not welcome. A 29-year-old man was charged at 1:55 a.m. when he got into an argument with his former wife.

Car break-ins

A number of cars were broken into by thieves Friday night. Halton Regional Police said someone entered an unlocked van parked at 24 Ransom St. in Acton and stole two speakers, fishing equipment, a rod and tackle box, and cassettes, all worth $300.

An unlocked vehicle parked at Ransom and Main Streets in Acton had two front stereo speakers valued at $50 stolen, sometime between 8:30 and 11:30 p.m.

Overnight Friday, someone stole an AM-FM radio tape deck and red tool box from a 1985 Pony parked at 62 Park Ave. in Georgetown. The stolen items were worth $750.

Drug catch

Two young men were arrested and charged with possession of a narcotic May 11 in separate incidents.

At 8:30 p.m., a 20-year-old Georgetown man was picked up by Halton Regional Police at the Georgetown Fairgrounds for possession of marijuana. He's to appear in Milton Provincial Court July 14.

At 9:30 p.m. the same night, an 18-year old Georgetown man was charged with possession of hashish. Police arrested him in a parked vehicle at Main Street and Maple Avenue, Georgetown. He's to appear in court July 14.

Egged on

A car parked on a Delrex Boulevard driveway overnight Saturday night was splattered with eggs. Halton Regional Police are investigating. Damage was about $10.
