

Despite rain, Bang-O-Rama attracts crowds, $5,000 raised

The 11th annual Bang-O-Rama went off without a hitch Monday despite drizzling rain that prevailed throughout the day, said Optimist Club President Sandy Booth.

Between eight and nine thousand people flooded through the gates of the fairgrounds to take in the day-long event, Mr. Booth said.

The day began at 6:30 a.m. with a gigantic garage sale and finished with an impressive $11,000 firework display. This year's version was especially welcome after the 1986

Bang-O-Rama fireworks had been rained out.

Optimists raised about $5,000 from the day's activities, Mr. Booth said. Members had hoped to raise more, but the drizzling rain kept some people away, he said.

The bingo was one of the more popular events, Mr. Booth said. "Every time it rained everyone went in there."

Crowds began to pick up at 5 p.m. with the appearance of the Carleton Show Band and the influx continued with most of the people staying for the fireworks display which began at dusk.

Mr. Booth was especially pleased with the fireworks display. "It was one of the first times the wind was just right," he said.

The tractor pull in the afternoon was also well attended, said Mr. Booth.

He said this year's Bang-O-Rama was definitely successful but next year's promises to be even more inviting.
