

Library celebrates anniversary

In 1967 the Town of Acton built a new Public Library as a Centennial project. June 1987 marks the 20th anniversary of its opening, and several events have been planned to celebrate the occasion. On Saturday, June 6, from 2 - 4 p.m., everyone is invited to a reception at the Library to mark the 20th anniversary of its dedication. Refreshments will be served, the Acton Citizen Band will entertain, and admission is free. The Acton Library's annual used book sale takes place the following Saturday, June 13, beginning at 9 a.m., rain or shine. Take this opportunity to stock up on summer reading needs at bargain basement prices. Hardcover books will be selling for 25 cents apiece, and paperbacks will cost 10 cents. Trivia buffs can test their wits with the Anniversary Trivia Quiz. The quiz may be picked up at the Acton Library beginning Saturday June 6, and must be returned there, on or before Friday, June 12. Collectors of memorabilia will not want to miss the library's Scavenger Hunt which will take place throughout Anniversary Week. Come to the Library for your list of items on or after June 6, then start rummaging through your Centennial souvenirs for the 20 objects needed for the contest. Once the required items are found, bring them all to the Library on or before Friday, June 13. Prizes will be awarded to the winners of both the Trivia Quiz and the Scavenger Hunt.

portunity to renew your acquaintance with the Library and its staff.
