

Georgetown YBC Bowling champions

Squirt Cubs win

The Squirt Baseball League, for players aged eight to 10-years-old, opened regular season play last Tuesday, as the Cubs edged the Indians 9-4.

The pitchers for the Indians struck out six batters in succession, before allowing the first hit. (An impressive statistic usually, but in squirt ball the batting team supplies its own pitcher.)

For the Cubs, Blair Jackson wielded an impressive bat, going five for five at the plate. Defensively, Tim Van Hinte came through with a super catch at third base.

For the Indians, Michael Richardson replied with two solid hits, while Tara Jeffrey made some exceptional fielding plays.

Close one for Concepts

The Money Concepts Women's Basketball Team was in action last Wednesday night, losing a tightly-contested exhibition game to the Mississauga Selects Allstars, by the score of 52-46.

The Money Concepts team, which is comprised of players chosen from the Georgetown Ladies' Basketball League, were led in scoring by Anita Stanikus with 11 points, and Allice Ogden with 10.

Top scorer for the Mississauga Selects was Susan Dack with 13.

Twirlers tops in Ontario

The Georgetown division of the Batons East Twirling Club is having an excellent competitive season thus far, and this is only its second year of operation.

Their latest victories came last weekend at the Ontario Provincial Team and Individual Championships in Pickering.

After winning the Juvenile Team honors on Saturday, 11-year-old Deanna Guignard made a clean sweep of the Juvenile Division by winning first place in the solo twirling among 19 competitors, and firsts in Medley and Dance Twirl events.

Two weeks ago Deanna earned a berth in the National Championships by placing in the top five in the Provincial Freestyle.

Carla Jackson who is last year's Junior Provincial Solo Twirling title holder, moved into the Senior Women's division this year, when she turned 15 in March. Although the Senior division is filled with strong competitors, Carla continued her winning ways by placing second in the Sr. Solo Twirling category.

Susan Thibodeau, 13, also reached the poll in both of her individual events by taking second place in the Jr. Solo event and third place in the Dance Twirl. Susan's string of first place wins in the open solo event has made her the first Georgetown twirler to move into the advanced Junior Solo division.

In the open portion of the latest competitions nine-year old Andrea Chisholm has also brought Georgetown honors in the Novice Solo and Dance Twirl events.

Darlene and Tim King, coaches of the club are very pleased with the progress of the girls this year and are now working with them for the upcoming Eastern Canadian Championships in mid-June and then the Canadian National Championships in Regina in early July.
