STATFACTS

Canada's population is growing but its rate of growth is actually slowing down. According to the final 1986 Census of Population counts, between 1981 and 1986, Canada's population grew from just over 24 million to just over 25 million. The growth rate, however, was 4.2 per cent, which is the lowest rate of growth recorded by a census in the last 25 years.

According to the final 1986 Census of Population counts, Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver are the largest centres
