HELP WANTED

MALCOLM BLACK EQUIPMENT LIMITED.

CONTROL AND AUTOMATION PRODUCT SALES MANAGERS

New positions are now open for Product Line Sales Managers. These imaginative field specialists will provide a technical link between our customers and our engineering and production departments.

Blackbox manufactures remote controls and automation systems for machinery. Our familiarity with mining, construction and industrial machinery is a unique strength when doing system design and installation. Our new reps must also bridge that gap and add to that strength.

Responsibilities will include direct, dealer and O.E.M. sales in domestic and export markets. In addition to proven sales expertise in the target areas, the applicants should have the following special attributes:

MINING PRODUCTS MANAGER
• Understanding of mining methods, machinery and a feel for the future of automation in mining
• Knowledge of the domestic mining community and its related machinery manufacturers

INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTS MANAGER
• Engineering or practical background in overhead crane electrical systems
• Proven access to heavy and light industrial customers

RAILWAY PRODUCTS MANAGER

• Experience with mainline and industrial railway users
• Expert knowledge of motive power and other railway equipment.
