The Canadian Legion was formed as a result of the inspiration provided by the 61 dedicated delegates who attended the Unity Conference held at the Marlborough Hotel in Winnipeg from the 25th to the 28th of November, 1925.

The following were the major organizations to accept union and form the Canadian Legion:

- Great War Veterans Association
- Tubercular Veterans Association
- Canadian Legion
- Great Army of United Veterans
- Canadian Disabled Veterans Association
- Canadian National Veterans Guild
- The Naval Veterans Association of Winnipeg
- Veterans Civil Service Guild
- Imperial Veterans in Canada

During 1926, commands were established on the following dates:

- Saskatchewan - February 1926
- Manitoba - March 1926
- Dominion - April 1926
- British Columbia - May 1926
- Quebec - May 1926
- Nova Scotia - May 1926
- Ontario - June 1926
- Alberta - June 1926
- Prince Edward Island - June 1926
- New Brunswick - June 1926

The Dominion charter was granted on July 17, 1926. By the end of 1926, the Legion had achieved a membership of 20,000 in 800 branches across Canada.

The title "Royal" was granted by Her Majesty the Queen, December 19, 1960, when we became officially The Royal Canadian Legion.

Our membership today is fast approaching 600,000, of which almost 150,000 are associate-voting members, mostly sons and daughters.
