Acton vacation bible school appoints Michele Rauwerda

The Christian Reformed Church of Acton has recently appointed Michele Rauwerda of Rockwood to be Director of its Daily Vacation Bible School. The vacation bible school will be held in the Christian Reformed Church in Acton from July 6-10 for children of Acton and the surrounding communities.

Michele Rauwerda is a member of the Christian Reformed Church and has been affiliated with the church her whole life. A mother of two she has previously been a teacher and assistant director of the daily vacation bible school.

The vacation bible school will run in the mornings for one week. The sessions will be led by about seven teachers with assistants. The teachers and the director have met and chosen curriculum for the program. The curriculum is called hallelujah: Jesus is King. The lessons include stories and crafts.

The children who attend the vacation bible school will be told of God's love, given beautiful crafts which they can complete and take home, refreshments and an opportunity to sing. In previous years the vacation bible school has drawn children from as far as Glen Williams, Hillsburg and Rockwood.

The VBS staff are hoping to teach about 80 children between the ages of 4 and 12 years. The daily program will run from about 9 to 11:30 daily and provide children an enjoyable setting with the staff.

For further information in the program or if you require further information, call Michele Rauwerda at 856-9074 or Coby Adema at 853-3206. Pre-registration is available.

Rev. Stairs open house

There will be an open house to congratulate Acton's Rev. Jean Stairs on her coming marriage to Dr. Rev. Wayne Soble June 20.

The location is the Acton Baptist Church and the time is 1 p.m. - 4 p.m. All are welcome; best wishes only.

Rev. Stairs will be married Oct. 16 at the James Street Baptist Church in Hamilton. She will preach for the last time in Acton Oct. 25. The Minister is also pursuing a Doctorate at the Toronto School of Theology in the fall.

Ballinafad store won't open just yet

The Ballinafad General Store, damaged heavily by fire last week, will remain closed until clean-up crews have cleared the building of debris and owner Bonnie Walker can take a full inventory.

Ms. Walker said Monday she has heard nothing definite about when the store may re-open. The roof of the building, which suffered the most damage, is still open, she said.

The store's post office has been moved temporarily to the Community Hall on Regional Road 42, directly across from the store. The post office is open from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m.

and from 2 to 5 p.m. daily. On Wednesdays it is open from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and on Saturdays from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Tenants Harry and Betty Clare and Lily and Blain Barclay lost all their belongings in the blaze, but escaped with no injuries. Neither had insurance on their property.

The Optimist Club of Georgetown has started a fund for Mr. Clare, a long-standing member of the club. Interested donors can make deposits to Royal Bank account number 70 07 562.
