

Twins get off to impressive start this season

The Twins are off to an impressive start in Georgetown Baseball Association Tyke League, after chalking up a record of three victories, and one tie, against just one loss in their first five outings.

The Twins opened their season May 20 and had to come from behind to tie the Astros 7-7, in a closely contested battle.

The great play of both teams was highlighted by the outstanding performance of Chris Howell, who belted a double for Twins. Colin Mountain went the distance pitching for the Twins, while Doug Sheppard helped the cause with a home run.

In their second outing, the Twins took on the Pirates, and came away with a convincing 13-5 triumph. Pitcher Andrew Crabbe started the game for the winners, before being replaced by Ryan Hutchins who did a good job in relief.

Mark Mitchell stroked a pair of doubles for the Twins, and added one single, while Doug Sheppard chipped in with a home run, and Chris Howell added a double.

In a rematch with the Pirates, the Twins found themselves up against a stiff test, but they managed to outlast their opponents 13-12.

Mike Sikora pitched well for the Twins and Chad Hughes and Jason Quinn wielded hot bats as the two had a double each. Doug Sheppard also stroked a triple to help the Twins' cause. Sikora was the outstanding player in the contest.

Defensively, Colin Mountain and Sheppard continued to impress, as both played well at several different positions.

The Twins' only loss of the young season came at the hands of the Astros June 1, when they suffered a 7-5 setback.

Chad Hughes pitched a strong game in relief of Andrew Crabbe, and the play of Hughes and Colin Mountain very nearly kept the Twins on the undefeated side of the ledger. Doug Sheppard pounded out a home run for the twins, while Mountain had a triple, and Kevin Galway added a double. Galway also made a great defensive play in the field. Hughes was named the outstanding player of the game for the Twins.

The Twins bounced back for another win on June 3, when they upended the Tigers 15-7. Colin Mountain pitched the game for the Twins and helped his own cause by going three for three at the plate. He was named outstanding player for the Twins.

Jason Quinn swatted a round-tripper for the winners, while Doug Sheppard had a triple, and Mikey Sikora added a double.

Defensively, Mark Mitchell and Jason Pellegrini each came up with stellar plays on the field.

First Choice cuts down Acton

Stacey Colarossi swatted a three-run homer, and Shannon Morris pitched a no-hitter last Tuesday night, as the Glen Williams First Choice Haircutters registered an exciting 5-1 victory over Acton.

The victory improved First Choice's record to three wins against just one loss, in Halton Rural Squirt Girls' League play.

For the most part, the contest proved to be a pitchers' duel between Morris and Acton's Tammy Richard. The Glen opened the scoring in the second inning, when Kim Sheppard singled, stole second, and came home on a throwing error.

Acton tied the score in the top of the third, when Shannon McAfee walked and then crossed the plate after Wendy Graham made it all the way to third with an error on her hit.

In the bottom of the fourth, the Glen Williams batter waited out four consecutive walks, which brought home Vicki Hancock, and gave them a 2-1 lead.

The score remained that way until the bottom of the sixth, when a pair of alternating walks and strikeouts set the stage for Colarossi's big hit.

In facing the final 12 Acton batters of the game, Morris struck out a total of 10, including the side in the bottom of the seventh.

The only two batters of those 12 who were successful in making contact with the ball flew out and grounded out, as the Glen defence held their ground.

The game totals show how closely matched the two pitchers were. Morris ended with a total of 19 strikeouts, while Richard fanned 15 for Acton.

Glen Williams finished up with five runs on two hits, and nine walks, while committing one error.

The Acton squad managed one run on no hits and six walks, and they also committed one error.

First Choice was scheduled to host Milton in Glen Williams Tuesday night, and tonight (Wednesday) they travel to Acton for a return match.
