

NORVAL NEWS

"His eye is on the sparrow"

NORVAL - Unit 1 Norval United Church met at the home of Agnes Miller June 18 for dessert lunch. A birthday cake in honor of May Cleave's 83rd birthday and Eunice Wilson's 84th birthday was enjoyed with ice cream and strawberries. Following the luncheon president Dorothy McLean opened the meeting with a lovely poem My God Is No Stranger. Thank you cards were received from several members and a good report was heard from the barbeque committee. The roll call was answered with birds or flowers seen within the last month with many interesting answers. The devotional, on the same theme, was taken by Kate Laidlaw, assisted by her granddaughter Beth Laidlaw.

Psalms 104 verses 24 and 33 refer to birds and flowers, as well as Luke 12, verses 6 and 7 were also read. Several hymns including "All things bright and beautiful" and "God sees the little sparrows fall" were mentioned. A tape of the hymn "His eye is on the sparrow" by B.J. Thomas concluded a beautiful devotion. A very unexpected and beautiful presentation of life membership pins to three members were made by Marion Laird and honorary elder Kate Laidlaw presented the certificates. Ladies receiving these honors were May Cleave, Eunice Wilson and Kay Wilson.

The pin is designed with the star of the women's group of the Methodist Church, the circle of the Congregations Church and the St. Andrews Cross of the Presbyterian Church and the seal of the United Church of Canada. All combine to symbolize the rich Christian heritage were are so blessed with.

SCHOOL'S OUT

LET'S DRIVE CAREFULLY

Now that school's out and our safety patrol force is no longer on duty, your help is urgently needed.

Summertime means children at play, often in the streets! When you see a stray ball rolling down the road, remember, there's probably a youngster in hot pursuit — who's usually not looking at anything but the ball!

Drive cautiously; watch for children at play!

CYCLISTS! Under the law, bicycles are vehicles, just like cars, and must obey all the rules of the road.

Take care to stop at STOP SIGNS and TRAFFIC SIGNALS. Use HAND SIGNALS and have a LIGHT for NIGHT RIDING.

ENJOY SUMMER SAFELY!
