

Young's Pharmacy remains atop Kinsmen senior softball standings

Young's Pharmacy leads the Kinsmen Senior Girls Softball League after they dumped Dunlop Insurance 25-7 last week in regular schedule action.

Carolyn Stewart, Karen Doyle, and Toni McClements shared the pitching duties for Young's, while Liane Monchamp and Jennifer Skinner pitched for Dunlop.

Game stars were Kyla Jackson for Young's and Jennifer Skinner for Dunlop.

Young's Pharmacy currently has six points to lead the standings, while Mal Dodge ReMax is second with three, and Dunlop Insurance has one point.

Four of the five Intermediate teams were in action last week as Delrex Smoke Shop and Dairy Queen recorded victories.

Delrex had relatively little trouble in their contest as they dumped the Optimists 44-17, behind the pitching of Brenda Snow and Lisa Hamilton.

Bridget McCauley went the distance, pitching for the Optimists.

Kelly Puckering belted a grand slam homer for the winners, and was named their game star. Yolande Sketcher had a pair of home runs for Delrex, and Lisa Hamilton and Amanda Tutt had one round-tripper each.

In the other Intermediate match-up, Dairy Queen took a 23-14 decision over Kentners Dairy Bar.

Jodi McClements and Leanne Mossop handled the pitching duties for Dairy Queen, while Robbyn Burke and Kerri Van de Valk shared the pitching chores for Kentners.

Julie Scarlett had a home run for the winners, while Jodie Heslop had two round-trippers for Kentners, including a grand slam Kerri Van de Valk and Robbyn Burke also had a home run each for Kentners.

Game stars for Dairy Queen were Jodi McClements and Julie Scarlett, and for Kentners it was Jodie Heslop.

Dairy Queen sits atop the standings of the five-team league with a total of eight points. Kentners is in second with six, Delrex Smoke Shop is third with four, the Optimists are fourth with two, and Elks Lodge is last with no points.

In Junior action, the Blue Giants remained atop their standings by edging North Halton Sports 31-28.

Tanya Osborne and Kendra Bird each belted home runs for the winners, and Jessica Beaque was named their game star.

The Blue Giants currently have six points in the standings, while North Halton Sports has three, and Standard Products has one.

Stingers edge Skittles 2-0

The Stingers and the Skittles squared off in what proved to be a very close match last Monday, in Girls Mosquito Soccer action. In the end, it was the Stingers who prevailed, as they took a 2-0 decision.

The winners drew first blood in the match as Andrea Herner scored on what some considered to be a controversial play.

The Skittles fought back but were unable to pull even with the Stingers.

Heather Donker finally added or insurance marker for the Stingers during the final few minutes of play, to round out the scoring.

Excellent performances were turned in by Julie Bugas, Deanna Guignard, and Lisa Reid for the Stingers, while the Skittles' Erica Booth, Kristy Johnson, and Sarah Packer played well.

Last Wednesday, the Skittles were back in action to take on True Blue.

Skittles fared better this time out as Sarah Williamson scored to put them ahead in the opening few minutes of play, and they held on to win the match 1-0.

Game stars for Skittles were Melissa Dobbins, Michelle Cizmar, and Angela Lee. For True Blue, Diane Benito, Ruth Burrows, and Christina Kelman played outstanding games.

In another Mosquito outing Thursday, True Blue went up against the Froggies. This proved to be a very exciting game, with True Blue opening the scoring on a goal by Diane Benito.

Froggies bounced back with a goal by Allison Lipp, and the contest ended in a 1-1 draw.

Ann Bowman, Elizabeth Fuller and Joanne Jeffrey of True Blue, all had excellent games, while Yvonne Moore, Christy Lightowers, and Laura Cascone played extremely well for the Froggies.

The Skittles are currently in first place in the league standings with a record of three wins and one loss for six points.

True Blue is a close second with two wins, a loss, and a tie for five points, while the Stingers are third with two wins, two losses, and four points. The winless Froggies are in fourth with one point on a single tie, and have sustained three losses.

Maroons win in pee-wee soccer

The Maroons defeated Bilik's Blues 3-1, and the Cheerios and Green Berets played to a 1-1 draw last week in Georgetown Girls Pee-wee Soccer League action.

Cindy Brennan led the way for the Maroons as she scored twice, while Anne Donnelly added a single. Melanie Booth had the lone reply for the Blues.

The teams were very evenly matched and the game proved to be very exciting.

In the other pee-wee contest Jennifer Ryan scored for the Cheerios while Kim Mizener replied with a marker for the Green Berets, which resulted in the one-all tie.

Grasshoppers, Bees record soccer wins

The Grasshoppers and the Busy Bees recorded victories in the Georgetown Girls Squirt Soccer League during action last week.

Bobbi Squire scored the lone goal as the Grasshoppers edged the Panthers 1-0. The game proved to be extremely close throughout and all the players performed well for their respective teams.

In the other league match-up, the Busy Bees downed the Care Bears by a score of 4-1.

Scoring for the Busy Bees were Davina Taylor, Jennifer Armstrong, Tara Schaeffer, and Cheryl Rivard.

Stephanie Appleby had the lone reply for the Care Bears, and once again all the players from both teams played very well.
