Former NHL referee

Bruce Hood seeks Liberal nomination

Bruce Hood

Bruce Hood has announced he will be a candidate for the provincial Liberal nomination in the riding of Halton North.

A press conference was held in Milton Thursday to announce Mr. Hood's intentions to run Halton North is a newly created riding, which contains a large portion of Halton-Burlington, currently held by Liberal MPP Don Knight.

The announcement of Mr. Hood seeking the nomination comes on the heels of Mr. Knight's decision Tuesday to retire from provincial politics.

Mr. Hood is a former referee in the National Hockey League, where he officiated for 21 years.

Currently he operates a travel agency in Milton.

Mr. Hood was a member of federal Sports Minister Otto Jelinek's commission investigating violence in amateur sport.
