WHAT IS SIN? Connected with Guilty. The voluntary departure of a moral agent from a custom prescribed by society or by divine law or divine command. Moral depravity: wickedness. Iniquity: an offense in general, (a transgression). To commit a sin, to violate any known rule of duty, to offend in general. To transgress: To trespass: with, against (to sin against good faste) To be unmindful of the gifts of Providence. Sinful - full of sin; wicked, containing sin or consisting of sin. Sinfully - in a sinful manner, wickedly. Sinfulness - the quality of being sinful. Sinless - free from sin, innocent. Sinlessly - in a sinless manner. Sinlessness - the state of being sinless. Sinner - one who sins, one who fails in any duty or transgresses any law, an offender.

"The most important teaching of Buddhism is to leave racial, religious, national, and patriotic prejudices behind. Until these prejudices are entirely removed, mankind will not find rest. May, rather discord and bloodshed will increase day by day, and the foundation of the prosperity of the world of man will be destroyed."
