Team effort

The Georgetown Hantam Eagles baseball team was kept busy Saturday as they held a car wash at the Pizza Hut parking lot. The event was held to help raise money for the team's trip to Elliot Lake in September for the Ontario Baseball Association championship tournament. The team also conducted a returnable bottle drive this week, and a corn roast will be held Saturday at a farm 13 kilometres south of Cedarvale Park, heading out Main Street.

Leisure Lines

Are you bored and looking for something to do? Although summer's almost gone there are still plenty of leisure activities to try. Why not choose from some of the following:

- Saturday, August 22 and Sunday, August 23 - the Halton Hills Juniors are hosting the Junior 'B' Provincial Championships at Prospect Park, Acton. Come out and see some top caliber softball this weekend.
- Sunday, August 23 - Professional Wrestling comes to Georgetown, 8:00 p.m. on Sunday night at the Georgetown Memorial Arena.
- Roller Skating - Wednesday nights (until September 2nd) at the Georgetown Memorial Arena.
- Canoe and Paddle Boat Rentals - daily 1 p.m. to 7 p.m. at Prospect Park, Acton.
- Public Swimming, 2 to 4 p.m., at the Acton Indoor, Georgetown Indoor Pool and Duck Lucata Outdoor Pools (for evening hours check with individual pools). Prospect Park Beach and Wading Pool guarded daily from 1 to 6 p.m.

Also, most ball, soccer, ball hockey and tennis leagues are currently engaged in championship playdowns. Many of these local and inter-county leagues provide spectators with some good entertainment. Why not come out and support your local athletes and enjoy some good competition and fun instead of watching the 33rd re-run of "Family Ties" or "I Love Lucy".

Just remember that winter's not that far away so pack a lunch, hit the beach and/or catch a game at one of our local parks while the good weather's still here.

Cheerios rate .500 in peewee soccer play

The Gold Cheerios came up with a win and a tie, and suffered one loss in three Peewee Soccer League games played recently.

On Aug. 4, the Cheerios received solid effort from every member of the team as they played to a scoreless draw with the Maroon squad. For the Maroon side, Stephanie Kuipers, Andrea Schneider, Kathryn Tannoch, and Gwen Morris all played strong games.

In a make-up game the following night, the Cheerios rallied to blank the Maroon squad 2-0. Wendy Padillo and Maureen Turner accounted for the goals in the contest.

On Aug. 10, the Cheerios ran into stiff opposition as they fell to Bilik's Blues by a score of 8-0.

Lorraine Mann led the way offensively for the Blues as she scored three times. Melanie Booth contributed a pair of markers to her team's cause, while Cara Gofan, Leanne Inglis, and Leslie Searth all added single goals.

Lifeguards needed

The Halton Hills Recreation and Parks Department are looking for lifeguards and instructors for the upcoming Fall and Winter seasons. Anyone interested should call 877-5185, ext 276.
