

Exchange House claims ball hockey championship title

It was a close final game between Exchange House and Night Crossings for the championship in the Georgetown Ball Hockey Association. Exchange House won the first game 5-1, but then had to hold on to eke out a narrow 5-4 win in the final game. (Herald photo)

The Exchange House Tavern claimed the championship title in the Georgetown Ball Hockey Association, as they swept Night Crossings in a best-of-three final series.

This marked Exchange House's second straight league championship season, and their third in four years, as they downed Night Crossings 5-1 and 5-4 in the final games.

Greg Lawr paced the attack for Exchange House in the final game as he pulled the trigger on a pair of goals. Darrell Weir notched the deciding goal, and other scorers were Mark Waters and Rick Cammon.

Replying for Night Crossings were Glen Baker, Greg Robertson, Tom O'Brien, and Howie Oram.

Pompei Pizza claimed the consolation title as they defeated North Halton Sports two games to one. The final game of the set required overtime to decide, as Dale Hawes scored at the 1:40 mark of the extra period to give Pompei a 3-2 victory.

Also scoring for Pompei were Noel Stoyles and Mark Brayben.

Gary McFadyen replied with both goals for North Halton Sports.

The awards for the league's top performers during the season were also presented between games last week.

Greg Robertson was named the Most Valuable Player during the playoffs, while Howie Oram was the winner of MVP honors for the regular season. Both players are with Night Crossings.

The top forward award went to Gary Lockwood of Exchange House, while the trophy for best defenceman went to Todd Cull of Cox's Landscaping.

Shayne Hillcock received the award for being the top goaltender, and Shawn Coffey of the M and M Flames was the top scorer in the league.

Semifinalists determined in GIFL

The Bluebirds remain on a tear as they eliminated the defending champion Mike Adams Real Estate squad by a 3-1 count to take the realtors two games to none in Georgetown Industrial Fastball League the best-of-three G.I.F.L. quarter-finals.

These teams had played 17 tough innings of ball in just two nights. In this last quarter-final game Brian McKenzie once again pitched the win and earned MVP for the Birds. The Bluebirds welded some hot bats, as the delivered Kevin Frank the loss. Al Densmore was selected MVP for the Realtors.

This set up the next confrontation for the Bluebirds, as they were to meet the idle Sea Air Oldtimers in the semi-final round.

But the real big story around the league was the near upset of Akers/Plus Welding by the Brackens restaurateurs.

Akers were already up one game (a 5-1 victory) in this quarter-final round as they squared off to face Brackens. But look out! Some fine pitching from Grant Clatworthy (Brackens MVP) and some excellent defence from Don Densmore and the rest of the Brackens squad pinned down a 5-3 Brackens victory to slave off what everyone thought was almost certain elimination. John Sargent belted an incredible "off the fence and fielder" out of the park two-run home run. Chuck Peavoy had three hard hits for Akers/Plus earning himself MVP status for his team. Jeff Gimpel took the loss.

This set up an incredible come-from-behind 4-3 victory for the Akers/Plus Welding squad to put them into the next round of playoff action.

Akers/Plus were very lucky as Brackens held a 3-1 lead with two out in the bottom of the seventh inning. Timely hits and some bad fielding breaks pushed Akers/Plus over the top for the late inning win. Grant Clatworthy once again hurled a fine game and was selected Brackens MVP.

Now the semi-final match-ups are decided. It is Akers/Plus to meet up with third place Apple Auto Glass, and Sea Air to battle it out with the hot Bluebirds.

The Bluebirds met up with the Sea Air squad who hadn't seen any fastball action for a few weeks. This must have been the case as the Bluebirds jumped all over the Oldtimers to win their eighth game out of their last nine, to earn a 6-1 win. What can be said, as once again big Brian McKenzie earned game MVP for the birds. He pitched an excellent game, along with belting a three run home run.

This set up game two last Wednesday.

day. If you hear the outcome, you won't believe it! Sea Air Oldtimers 17, Bluebirds 5. What happened?

The series is now tied one apiece.

Bert Osborne went four for five at the plate to help George Shepherd earn the win.

George pitched five good innings, as Bob Fendley came in for the save Larry Burns played well defensively to earn MVP honors for the Bluebirds.

Now the Series is all tied up at one apiece.

The semi-final, and final, rounds are the best four out of seven so come on out to catch all the action as there are lots more games to see!
