

Golden Flights soaring

Flights maintained the lead at the top of the first division with strong outings from Mike Pepper, Tim Fields and Al Murphy. Close behind remain Hustlers whose Al Telford had six check ins and Ray Inglis started and finished another game. Both teams sport a 6-1 record to date and are creeping ahead of the pack. For Westenders Ray Ackroyd had a start of 82, John Mills a high finish of 113 and Denis Thorogood a high score of 140. Independents Jim Franks netted a high 140 also. Ensigns Harry Bottoms and Mike Fynn both had a maximum 180 in their win over Firemen and Marty's 120 as a high. Roy Ruttiger sported a high start of 106. Panthers are finding it a hard go in the first division and Luke Heikamp opened with a high start of 80 in going down 2-7 to Exports steday play.

In the second division Snowjacks moved back into first place with a win over improving Inter County Sports. Teamwork proved the winner here, with Danny Fraser turning in two starts and three finishes; Joe Cairns spotting three starts and two finishes. Eric Fuller had three starts, a finish in his outings. Gerry Wallace hit highs of 130 and 138 and yours truly 123 and 95. George O'Neil and Ian Lee of Inter county spotted 140's. George Powell threw some of his best scores in years in this game. Second place Eliminators lost their first three games against Bulldogs before pulling together to win the next three and draw level. The match saw from there until Bulldogs won the last game for the win. For Eliminators Paul Sherwood opened with a 102 and Jamie Frank netted a high 132. The Bandits found themselves in an unusual 3-2 lead over Aces then the bubble burst. Aces went to take the last four games for the victory. Ed Koumounjam hit the ton for High Rollers with Doug Whickels opening with a 76 over Taxmen who had high starts of 62 from both Dave Beaumont and Darryl Simpson and Joe Frost popped in a high 102.

The close game in the first division this week should be Ensigns vs Westenders. Flights and Hustlers should have no difficulty with their opponents on present form.

Second division highlighted game is Snowjacks attempting to keep the lead over Eliminators. Bulldogs and Inter County Sports should provide another interesting close encounter.

Apple team closes in on fastball crown

Save for the World Series there are not too many 'sand-lot' ball games still going on. What with the hockey season well under way, who would have guessed the G.I.F.L. play-offs were still in full swing?

The Apple Auto Glass crew geared up way back on October 4, to meet the Bluebird gang in Game 1, of the best of seven series.

This first game saw Jeff Haines square off against big Brian MacKenzie.

Apple Auto drew first blood. Dave Bruton doubled, Dan Hall walked then Glen Fendley drilled a single to centre. Dave Bruton scored, but Hall was nailed at the plate on a fine throw by Brad Edgar.

In the fifth inning Jr. Wright scored on an Apple throwing error to tie the game at one.

Then Apple came up in the sixth. Rob Hatcher blooped a single. Don Rae came in as a pinch runner. Next Barry Quall singled. This set the stage for a top of the fence triple from Glen McClure scoring Rae and Quall. Apple led 3-1, and held on for the win.

Bob Inglis earned the Most Valuable Player award for the Birds, with two hits and some fine defensive plays.

Jeff Haines was Apple M.V.P., earning the win and pitching strongly. Brian MacKenzie took the loss.

Apple led the series 1-0. Well believe it or not the next confrontation for the title was Sunday Oct. 18!

It seems both these teams had some other sports on the go (ie., fishing, stags, bowling and so on) putting the bubbly on hold for a while.

So the two coaches decided on Sunday to play a double-header. One at 1 p.m., the next at four.

Terry Haines went to the hill for Apple, against Brian MacKenzie of the Birds.

Apple once again counted first with a three run fourth inning.

Barry Quall led off with a single, followed by one from Scott Haines. Andy Hammer grounded out advancing the runners to first and second with two out. Don Rae reached on an error scoring Barry Quall, bringing Dave Bruton to the plate. Dave belted out a hard double scoring Scott Haines and Don Rae. That made the score 3-0 Apple.

In the top of the fifth Rob Hatcher looped a single to right field. Graham Dearsley went in to pinch run stealing second and third. Glen Fendley's long sacrifice fly scored Dearsley, to put Apple ahead 4-0.

In the bottom of the sixth, with one out Bill Kirby (brought) out of retirement as of late) doubled up the alley. Brian MacKenzie advanced Kirby to third on his single bringing Blake Shorthill to the plate. He promptly belted out a single to score Kirby. They looked as if they had a rally going. Terry Haines struck out the next batter to end the inning.

To the top of the seventh went Apple needing some insurance runs. With two out, Graham Dearsley reached second on a throwing error. Hot hitting Rob Hatcher singled singled again to score Dearsley.

Now to the bottom of the seventh with the Birds trailing 5-1.

Larry Peterson lead the inning on a fielding error. Terry Haines struck out the next batter, then proceeded to walk Brad Edgar.

Bob Inglis thumped an up the middle single to score Peterson and Edgar. There came the Bluebirds! Bill Kirby picked up his second hit of the game advancing Inglis to third. It was time for a conference on the mound. Without hesitation Terry handed the ball over to brother Jeff Haines who then promptly struck out the last two batters to earn the save and give Apple the win. Apple leads 2-0 in the series.

The players all went for a "tea" break ready to resume at four.

Game two of the Sunday afternoon double-header had Jeff Haines continue, where he had left off, and Brian MacKenzie (the Bird's only pitcher on that day) continued for the Birds, he pitched 14 innings on the afternoon. The Bluebirds were in desperate need of a win.

But for the third time in the series Apple led off the scoring. Once again Rob Hatcher singled (he went five for six in both games) to lead off the third inning. Graham Dearsley was again chosen to run for him because of an injury. Dearsley stole second, and Glen Fendley singled to put runners at first and third. Brian MacKenzie next had to face Barry Quall with two on and two out. Barry belted a fastball deep over the left-centre fence to put Apple ahead 3-0.

Both teams went up and down quite easily for the next few innings.

Then in the top of the sixth inning Jr. Wright got on base on an error. Brad Edgar was next to get on by the same method.

Flamboro chases Peewees

Backed up by great goaltending from Trevor Knight and Josh Barber, the Georgetown Minor Pee Wees skated off with a 4-3 victory Saturday over Flamboro and a 4-2 win over Streetsville Sunday.

Against Flamboro, Georgetown fell behind 1-0 in the first minute but settled down to take the game to Flamboro by forechecking strongly and using good positional play.

Steve Boyce tied the game midway through the opening period converting a centering pass from Derek Parsons. Late in the second period Hason Walker gave Georgetown the lead with a beautiful solo effort, cashing in on his own rebound.

Parsons scored the only goal of the second period backhanding in an Andrew Marshal rebound to put Georgetown ahead 3-1. Boyce also assisted on the play.

Matt Pickett scored what proved to be the winning goal with five minutes left in the game combining with Walker and Ryan Brain to increase the margin to 4-1.

Flamboro wasn't about to give up, though, and in a surprise move, pulled their goalie with 4 1/2 minutes to play in an attempt to get back into the game. The strategy paid off as they narrowed the margin to 4-2 with 2 1/2 minutes left and then made it 4-3 with 36 seconds to play. But they were unable to get the equalizer.
