Major B Atoms defeated

The Milton BB Major Atoms paid the Georgetown B Major Atoms a visit Sunday, and came away with a 9-2 victory.

The game was close in the early going. Milton scored at 9:16 of the first period, on an intercepted pass from deep in the Georgetown end. Later, they upped the score to 2-0. But for the most part, the period was a close-checking one, with good defensive play nullifying most offensive threats.

Milton broke it open in the second, scoring four unanswered goals. Georgetown got off on the right foot to start the third, when David Doole tallied an unassisted goal, to close the gap to 6-1. After Milton got that one back, Matt Lush scored from a goalmouth scramble, with the assist going to Wesley Burke. The locals tried to open the game up, but that merely allowed Milton to score two more goals.

Offensively, there were a few good plays for the locals. A Lush pass set up a shot on goal for Robby Monckton. Jaimie Bottomley beat a Milton player one-on-one to get a shot on goal. And Craig Blair and Scott Wilson each made nice passes to set up scoring opportunities.

Defensively, Andrew Elinecky broke up a one-on-one, Shannon Morris broke up a two-on-one, and Stephen Yurichuk and Bottomley blocked shots.

Next week, the locals make their first visit of the year to Erin.

Chateau upsets Milton

The Chateau Restaurant Minor Bantams are getting themselves back on track after a disappointing weekend which saw them emerge with only one point in three outings.

After losing to arch-rival Milton on home ice last Sunday, something appeared to kindle a flame under the Chateau team.

Tuesday night Oakville came to Georgetown and felt the heat, as they fell 9-0 to the locals behind the shutout goaltending of John Katsileris.

The game was also highlighted by solid defensive efforts by Brad Amato, Rob Lang, Peter Lee, and Adam Hagen.

Adam Hills, Duane Lewis, and Sean Guistini led the way offensively with two goals and two assists each, while Trevor Elinecky added a pair of markers and Chad Hartman had one. Hagen clipped in with three assists, while Amato, Lang, Claude Johnston, Mark McIntyre, and Brad Tutt also had assists.

Thursday night, Georgetown was in Milton and pulled off what might be the upset of the young season. Milton was boasting a 41-game regular season undefeated streak, but it came to an end as the Chateau squad took a hard fought 4-2 decision.

Both teams came out in a battling mood. Mitch Bult was lost to Georgetown for two weeks after he was checked into the boards from behind in the first minute and sprained a knee.

The game remained scoreless into the second period as goalie Peter Downs made several point blank saves for Georgetown.

Milton took advantage of a powerplay opportunity to take a 1-0 lead, but less than a minute later Lewis scored to tie it on a nice pass from Johnston.

Another powerplay marker gave Milton a 2-1 third period lead, but Doug Crawford scored for Chateau assisted by Elinecky and Hills to tie it again.

Elinecky scored the go-ahead goal on a pinpoint pass from Guistini, and Hills added an insurance marker as Georgetown never looked back.

"This was the best effort I've seen the team put out," said Chateau coach Hartman following the win. "We're starting to play as a team, and the rewards are evident."

Saturday, the Georgetown Bantams went "trick-or-treating" in Flamboro, but were tricked more than they were treated as Flamboro battled them to a 5-5 draw.

The locals were taken by surprise by the quick and aggressive play of their opponents, and only the spectacular goaltending of Katsileris kept the score close. The netminder stopped wave after wave of Flamboro attackers before surrendering the goals, as Georgetown was outshot 31-21.

Adam Hills picked up a hat trick for Chateau and added two assists. Tutt and Crawford had the other markers, while Elinecky picked up three assists. Hagen helped out with two assists, and McIntyre and Tutt had one apiece.

The Chateau team takes to the ice again Thursday for a game in Burlington, and then will have a week off before they see action again.

DARTS
By ALEX TOUGH

The Hustlers retained their first place standing in the Georgetown Industrial Darts League with a 5-4 win over nearest challengers Golden Flights.

Flights' Mike Pepper had three finishes and Tim Fields recorded the three high scores of the game, but to no avail. Hustlers all-around play took the game. Ken Baker's high score of 140 and Harry Bottoms two high starts of 108 played a large part in their narrow 5-4 victory over Exports.

Dennis Thorogood opened with a high 116 in leading Westenders to a 6-3 win over Independents, for whom Ian MacDonald recorded a high 123. Tied 3-3 after six the 'enders took the last three games for the win.

The foot of the table clash between Panthers and Firemen saw the cats put the fire out by 6-3. Firemen's Rick Appleyard hit a Kavanagh all hit for 'tons' in their effort, winning the last five in a row.

Taxmen ran up the evening's highest win by 8-1 over shorthanded Eliminators. Jeff Coulligan knocked off 120 in the losing effort. For Taxmen Joe Poirier hit a high 120 and Dave Beaumont finished with a 54, as the lads took the first six games.

Meanwhile, Aces and InterCounty were battling it out to a 5-4 result. County's Mark Campbell hit highs of 125 and 138. Aces' Dean Hancock is getting plenty of marking practice. (His mates say he needs lots of it!)

Winning the middle five games helped High Rollers to a 6-3 result over near rivals Bulldogs. A high of 125 was recorded by Mark Flairmond. Pete Robinson put up a 123 and namesake Dave a 125 and a finish of 84. Leaders Snajaks lost the first two games to the lowly placed Bandits and then rallied to take five in succession in a steady team display. Bandits' Ken Hayes started and finished all of their wins.

For Snajaks Joe Cairns hit a 129, 140 with three starts and two finishes, one of the starts being 91. Dan Fraser hit two 'ton's, two starts and two finishes. Eric Fuller hit one 'ton, one start and one finish.

Wednesday (tonight) sees a break from league play for the mixed doubles. Players are drawn from the hat in a mixed draw where no two players from the same team may play as a double. This makes for a fun journey with some unusual and some good teams.

Each double is guaranteed two games before the knock out part of the night. There is a top and bottom draw, all drawn from the hat again and the two winners play off for the championship. Last year Lloyd Westlake and I were teamed up and we defeated Tim Fields and "Beau" Beaumont in the final. We all have different partners this year.

In one of the draws some of the stronger pairings are likely to be Dennis Thorogood/Roy Ruttiger; George O'Neil/Pete Pickering; Ray Ackroyd/Jack Hamilton with former singles winner and finalist rivals of a year or so ago - Earl Maltby/Bruce Hope as dark horses with Gord Bottoms/Mike Finn as outsiders.

North Halton edged 4-3 by Milton

The North Halton Sports Major Atom 'AA' team put their four game winning streak on the line against arch-rival Milton on Thursday night at Memorial Arena.

Predictably, the game produced excellent end-to-end hockey between the top two teams from last year's Minor Atom loop, as Milton finally prevailed 4-3 by recording the winning tally with only 14 seconds remaining on the clock.

Doug Sheppard opened the scoring for the locals on a goal assisted by Gavin Glaser and David Bouskill.

With the score tied at one Sheppard sent the North Halton Sports team into the lead with the helper going to Blaine McCauley. Milton again evened the score in the seesaw battle before McCauley caught the top corner early in the third period after passes by Jamie Stephenson and Brent Wilkinson.

Milton quickly evened the score only to record an additional last minute tally. John Waller played an excellent game in the Georgetown net.

Far from discouraged by the loss, the North Halton Sports squad, with six new players, can only look forward with optimism to a rematch with Milton and the remainder of their schedule.

The other half of the draw has Luke Heinkamp/Ian MacDonald; Eddie Paterson/Laurie Hopkins; Henry Graham/Joe Cairns; Harry Bottoms/Rick Appleyard and John an unmentioned pairing may well come out of the pack.

We shall see on the night.
