This R-2000 home is super energy efficient offering greater comfort for its occupants and heating costs which are up to 70 percent less than conventionally built home. The owner of an R-2000 home enjoys a much quieter environment, with uniform temperature throughout, virtually no drafts and much less dust. Since R-2000 is not a specific home design but a building system, the technology can be built in almost any style of home.

Brick quoining accents, and multipaned bay windows grace this stately four bedroom home. The foyer boasts an impressive staircase that leads to an open gallery. French doors from the living room opens to the formal dining room. The informal area of the home revolves around an efficiency designed kitchen, breakfast room and large family room. The family room is warmed by a large fireplace. Entry from the double car garage opens to convenient mudroom with laundry facilities and storage closet.

Upstairs the master bedroom features a walk-in closet and three piece ensuite with sower and large soaking tub. The three additional bedrooms, each with ample closets, share a main bathroom with tub.

Total finished floor area is 2,352 square feet.
