Several Cameo Stamps Of Queen Have Been Issued

All is not as it seems is often the case with stamps, and the 36-cent stamp issued Oct. 1 showing the cameo of Queen Elizabeth II is an example. At first glance, the cameo (queen's head) is the same as when it was first used on a Canadian stamp 10 years ago.

It's the same - but different. Let's have a look. One constant is that all the queen's cameo stamps are definitives. That is, they are not printed in a specific quantity, but are printed as needed over a long period of time. Commemoratives or for special subjects or events, are printed in a fixed quantity and are available for a short time. The first cameo stamp was a 12-cent (Scott 713) issued March 1, 1977. It was designed by Heather Cooper of Toronto after a sculpture by Jaroslav Huta. The stamps were printed by British American Bank Note Co. Ltd. using steel engraving for one color and gravure for two colors. Looking at it, a viewer would say it's an ivory cameo on a blue background. LETTERS Letters are invited. Please send enquiries to the writer at P.O. Box 40, Beauharnois, Quebec, J6N 3C1.
