Cubs learned about possible future professions and hobbies at the Nov. 14 annual resource workshop. Held at the Optimist Hall on Highway 7, the event was sponsored by the North Halton District Cubs. Boys attended from Acton, Georgetown, Glen Williams and Limehouse.

Following registration, the Grand Howl was led by Robert Teal of 1st Acton.

Corporal Brian Stewart of the OPP gave a presentation about his own career. He spoke of his uniform and displays, including the baton, hand cuffs, badges, shoulder flashes, hat, gas mask, helmet, protective clothing, shield and many other items.

Groups were rotated so that everyone could visit various presentations which included Rocks and Stones by Craig Booth, Videos by Steve Norman, Waikie Talkies by Jim Collier, Scuba Diving by Walter Noble and rope-making and splicing by John "Jack" Layman.

David Shrubsole gave a most interesting story and sang a song about his hobby of raising goats.

Mr. Shrubsole had Tara to tell the Cubs how gentle she was. He spoke about how to trim horns and the hoof as well as about goat's milk and the many times he has attended goat shows.

David Lambie of Fergus talked about bird banding, catching the birds to band, bird houses and he gave a slide presentation. Mr. Lambie has permission at Guelph Lake to build bird houses. One bird came back five years in a row to the bird house, he said.

John deBlauw gave a presentation on guns, gun safety and displayed books on guns, shells, etc.

Young Cub cadets tour OPP centre

Cubs from the 4th Georgetown B Pack of St. Andrew's United Church went on a tour of The Ontario Provincial Police Training Centre in Brampton Nov. 12. The Cubs and Leaders were met by officer-instructor Brian Carty who conducted the tour, assisted by Constables Jeff Wright and Linda Imrie. The tour included the dormitory, museum, gym, electronic equipment and VCR room. The real highlight was in the hanger to see the two beautiful Bell Long Ranger helicopters.

Mrs. Mollie Harvey, curator of the museum, was most interesting, telling the group of the many items on display. They enjoyed the handcuffs, guns, leg irons, billy clubs, come alongs, dog trainers' sleeve, uniforms, badges and history.

Mr. Ariett, showed a film on the VCR about how to rescue, stabilize, assess, and how to minimize risk.

He spoke on fingerprinting and that they keep on top of all subjects of law. The gym was huge, making it a great place for training and exercise. Highlighting the tour was the two police helicopters in the hanger. This is just when some Cubs thought it would be nice to be an OPP officer. Constable Jeff Wright told the group about the helicopter. The Ontario Provincial Police has 187 detachments and it includes both male and female officers.

Arrangements for the tour were made by Assistant Cubmaster Steve Norman. Other leaders were Cubmaster Margaret Jenkins, Assistant Cubmaster Irene Hartwick, Assistant Cubmaster Andrew Kayes. Each presentation was followed by a question and answer period. A cheer of thanks was given to each instructor after their talk.
