

Outlook on Halton Hills

Sacred ground

Dignitaries gathered for the official sod turning ceremony of Bishop Paul Francis Heding Secondary School in Milton Nov. 14. The west wing of the school will be ready for Sept. 1988 and 600 students who are currently using Speyside Public School will be able to move in. The school will add a grade each year.

The $15 million school will be constructed in a figure eight with full vocational and academic facilities. Helping dig the first shovelful of sod is Sister Mary Austin (sister of the late Bishop Heding), Student Council President Adrienne Harris, Parents' Association President Jennifer Barnett and Bishop Tommas.

Candle concert

Christmas brings everyone something to sing about. And on Monday, December 7, at 7:30 p.m., the Milton Choristers will serenade their audiences at a Candlelight Christmas Concert. The concert will be at the Royal Botanical Gardens, 890 Plains Road West in Burlington. The concert will be a fundraiser for Halton's Women's Place, a shelter for battered women and children. Reserved tables are available for groups of 6-8 people, and cheese will be served to complement the Cash Wine Bar. Tickets are $12.50 each and can be reserved by calling 845-8738.

ASHGROVE-The Safety and Agriculture meeting was hosted by Mrs. Pat Stark at Hillcrest Church on Tues. evening, Nov. 17. The program committee, Mrs. Isla Allison and Mrs. Gwen Brander showed the film "When Murphy Goes Farming" which gave a humorous insight how stress affects the farmer and leads to accidents. They also gave an update on agriculture and especially mentioned the part local people are taking at the Royal Winter Fair. The Roll Call was answered by "How do I prepare my home before leaving on holidays."

During the business conducted by Pres. Mrs. Doreen and Secretary-Treasurer Mrs. Verna Bird quilt blocks were handed out to be applied and a ticket and social committee were chosen. Doreen Wickson gave the Area Convention Report. Congratulations were passed on to winners in the C.W.I.C. contest at Area level.
