Teen Outlook

Nov. 10 the second edition of the GDHS Press was published. It featured articles pertaining to the сштепт controversial issue of no smoking at GDHS, the student council, sports news, music programs, movie reviews, creative writing and much more.

"We are really excited about the new developments in the paper. A lot of people in the school were impressed with our first issue and I think this issue was even better," said Charlie Gibbs, general editor of the GDHS Press.

The next general information meeting will be held Nov. 26 in W132, with the third issue due out Dec. 8. Students from all grades are encouraged to come out and write for the Press.

The North Halton University Information Program was held Nov. 11, at Milton District High School from 11:45 - 1:55. The program was held to assist high school senior students in making decisions regarding post secondary education. Students were allowed to visit three university presentations of their choice.

Representatives from 16 Ontario universities and Ryerson Polytechnical Institute and the Royal Military College took part in the information program. Graduating students are reminded that their university application forms must be handed into Student Services by Dec. 1.

Students who are graduating this January are reminded that a $10 deposit per couple is needed to hold their Graduation Formal tickets Money must be handed in by Dec. 4 to Dee Dee Haynes or any other member of the Formal Committee. Tickets for the Graduation Formal will go on sale in June. Graduates who have paid a deposit and then decide to cancel will receive $5 of their deposit back.

the season was their last game which was played against Blakelock. The final score was 7-6 after Phil Leslie blocked a convert that enabled the Junior Boys to win the game.

The Formal Committee will be holding their next fundraising dance in January, and are also hoping to have a paper drive in the new year

The Junior Boys Football team finished their impressive season second overall in their division in their regular season they played teams from Milton, E.C. Drury, Blakelock, Lord Elgin and Pearson, finishing with four wms and two losses. The 32 team members coached by Mr. Clark, Mr. Kolam and Mr. Kee began playing in September and practised every day after school The team captains are Kyle Goodlet, Wade Serieantson, Stuart Teetzel, and Colin McMurray

"This year has been awesome for us because we've won so many games," said Brian Snow, who plays defensive noseguard.

The playoff game was held Nov. 11 at Milton District High School. This was the first time in eight years that the Junior Boys football team had made it into the playoffs, but they lost 35-1.

Although the boys recognize the fine playing skills of the Milton team they attribute part of their loss to a lack of school support and spirit from GDHS

"Milton had a lot of spirit from their school whereas we had virtually none," said Brian Terrell, who plays defensive tackle. "We played our best though, but they were bet-

Many of the older members of the team are hoping to play for the senior team next year

"The senior team lost all their games this season, so we hope to help them have a winning team next year," said Brian Terrell

Pianist Thiel entertains

Acton High

By LESLEY MCCRYSTALL.

Friday night (Nov. 20) AHS is holding a very special scholarship concert. Performing for this event is a young talented planist, Andreas Thiel. Andreas graduated from AHS in 1983, and since that time he has been studying music. In 1984 he won the Edward Johnston competition for piano and has twice been selected to participate in the Ontario music competition finals in Kingston and Ottowa.

Andreas has appeared in solo recitals at the University of Guelph, Kitchener and Hamilton as well as glving joint recitals with his teacher. Anya Laurence, at the Landawska center in Connecticut.

This imaginative and moving performance will start at 8 p.m. All proceeds will go to the Acton high school scholarship fund.

Former AHS students and staff are invited to a reunion dinner concert and dance, celebrating the tenth birthday of the new AHS.

This special event will take place Dec. 12 at the AHS cafetorium. The reunion dinner concert and dance will start at 7:30 p.m. and will continue until 1 a.m. You will hear the great sounds of the AHS band in concert and dance music by Spectrum, former AHS student Chris Lobsinger.

The catering will be done by former AHS student Jennifer Alton. All profits from the reunion will go to the Gord Ballert and family fund. Ticket prices are $30 per couple, advance ticket sales only up to Dec. 4
