

Sports Outlook

The Acton Sabres continue to have their problems with the Caledon Flyers in the Mid-Ontario Junior C hockey League. Wednesday, the Flyers held on to beat the Sabres 6-4 in Acton, marking the third time the Sabres have fallen at the hands of the Flyers this season. Acton faces stiff opposition in their next few games, as they host league-leading Orangeville Friday at 8 p.m., and then travel to Bradford for a game Sunday night.

Xmas skiing

Christmas will soon be here and the Recreation and Parks Department would like to help you plan what you are going to do. In conjunction with Glen Eden Ski Area, we will bus youth (eight to 16 years) in both Acton and Georgetown to the hills in Milton. All participants will receive two lessons per day. For more information call 877-5185 ext 260.

Pee-wees lose two close ones

The Georgetown "AA" Pee Wees were involved in a pair of tight contests in league play recently. In a home game against Stoney Creek, Georgetown lost a heartbreaking, close-checking contest to the visitors by a score of 3-2.

After opening the scoring on a goal by Ken Kosziwka assisted by Andrew Elliott, the home squad allowed three straight Stoney Creek goals. Kosziwka's second goal of the night, on assists from Ryan Pells and Chris Barrow, brought Georgetown to within one, but Stoney Creek held on for the win.

In Orangeville, the Georgetown team played a hard hitting, fast paced contest and came out on the short end of a 7-5 score.

The Orangeville squad, led by Tyrone Loucks with three goals and Mike Melavson with two, held period leads of 2-1 and 5-3 in the

Water shows

Everyone is welcome to attend the Annual Christmas Water Shows, at the Acton Indoor Pool - Friday, Dec. 4 at 7 p.m. and at the Georgetown Indoor Pool - Saturday, Dec. 5 at 7 p.m. Admission is free.

Although few penalties were called, the game featured many hard hits by both sides, with the Georgetown defense keeping Orangeville at bay with their aggressive style.

Georgetown scorers were led by Ken Kosziwka with two while singles were added by Brent Couling, Jake Mashinter and Andrew Elliott. Tim Presswood and Chris Barrow assisted on the Georgetown goals.

In an exhibition game Sunday night at Memorial Arena, Georgetown lost 5-2 to a talented, fast-skating team from Richmond Hill.

After Ken Kosziwka opened the scoring, the home team fell behind 4-1 before Kosziwka scored his second goal of the evening. Brent Couling, Andrew Elliott and Chris Barrow added assists on Kosziwka's goals.
