THE EXCHANGE HOTEL

December 5th, 1980, marked the grand opening of the Trafalgar, Esquesing and Erin Plank Road. The firm road of planks proved a great boom to the local farmers who could now get their grain to Oakville in 3 hours for the low toll of three shillings. No longer did the impassable roads of late fall cause them to get low grain prices.

However, once the Grand Trunk Line arrived in Georgetown, the plank road became obsolete as farmers used the railway to transport their grain.

Many thanks to Elaine Bertrand, Walter Lewis and Mark Rowe. We'd love to hear from you!
