Dear Sinead, What an unusual name! One of my elves, Daenis, saw your letter, and she wants to trade names with you. Don't trade, because personally, I think your name is a lot nicer than hers. Did you know that leprechauns help my elves make Christmas gifts too? If you see one, try and catch him, because then he'll have to give you his pot of gold! Have a good time in Ireland, Sinead!

Love, Santa

P.S. I just wanted to thank you for the picture. Mrs. Claus thinks it looks just like me!

Dear Santa, Hi! My name is Riley. I am 5 years old. I started school this year. I really like it. I hope I make your good book. Dad and mom say I was good. For Christmas I would like: Playschool Dinosaurs, a Madball, My 'Buddy' a Pound Puppy, some wretlers and the ring, some Silverhawks, Ghostbusters and car, an archery set, and western rifle.

I will leave carrots for the reindeer and donuts and juice for you. Say hi to your elves for me.

Love

Riley McAneny
Terra Cotta

Dear Riley, You always get so much snow in Terra Cotta. However, I won't forget you and your friends. I'm glad you like school, Riley, because learning can be fun!

You've asked for some pretty scaring - sounding toys, but if my elves have been working hard in the workshop, there should be a special something or two for you under the tree.

P.S. Chocolate donuts are my favorite. I'm allergic to coconut.

Love ya,
Santa

Dear Santa, My sister, Paige, and I are going to see you come into town on Sunday on the television. My mom said I have been a good girl so I can ask you for a few things for Christmas. Please could I have a Cabbage Patch Baby with a Pacifier, a Lady Lovilocks, Moondreamer with Pigtails and a Cudlywood Doll, whose hair changes colour. Please say hi to Rudolph from me.

All my love,
Ashley Killick,
Rosemary Rd., Acton

Dear Ashley, What a lovely girl you are. And oh how I love visiting you and your friends when I drop by Acton. Did you see me at the parade? I'll have to look into my files about a Moondreamer and ask my toy specialist elf, Nortfumbler Zook, about this item. It's so hard to keep up with these new inventions. Rudolph says hi to your sister Paige. Be good to your mommy and daddy.

Love, Santa

Dear Santa, Thank you for the candy canes and gifts you gave me last year. This year I would like a talking Alf. Happy New Year. By the way do your elf go around peeking to see who is bad!

Love Melanie Stapleton,
Stevens Cresc.,
Georgetown, Age 7

Dear Melanie, Thank you oh so much for your lovely drawings and colorful booklet about me. Mrs. Claus will have a special spot for your drawings in her kitchen. It seems every little boy and girl wants a talking Alf this year. But I would too if I were your age! No, Melanie, I don't snoop around the house seeing if you've been good or bad, but I do put in a phone call or two to your parents - just to be sure. So far they tell me you've been a pretty good girl.

Love, Santa

Dear Santa, We have all been good kids this year. We're writing this letter for our whole family. There are three of us. My name is Meghan and I am 5 years old. My sister Alanna is 3 and my brother Kyle is 1.

My sister and I would both like Twin Baby Ponies, Play Dough, Lite-Brille, a Feed Me game and barrels for our hair. I would also like some Barbie clothes and a car. I would especially like a Popple. My sister Alanna would like a Keyper, a stroller Barbie Backyard Pool Party and some pyjamas with flowers on them. My brother Kyle would like some new clothes, a Cabbage Patch doll and a truck. We will be sound asleep when you arrive on Christmas Eve, so enjoy the goodies that we leave out for you and Rudolph.

Love, Meghan, Alanna and Kyle,
Market St., Georgetown

Dear Methan, How do you like being five? I remember when I was five that I wanted a truck too - probably like the one that Kyle would like! I think that it was very nice of you to ask for toys for your younger brother and sister too.

Thank you for the treats that you leave out on Christmas Eve. Blitzen and Rudolph especially like the treats that you leave for them! I hope that you will like the gifts that I leave for you on Christmas.

Love, Santa

Dear Santa Claus, How are you and Mrs. Claus. How are your reindeer and elves, I hope fine.

My mommy is writing this letter for me, as I am not yet two. I would like for Christmas a toy box, little bike, sleeper, snow suit. If Santa find anything else I will treasure it. I would like you to bring something surprise for my cousin Becky. I would like to thank everyone who has loved me and wish everyone a merry Christmas and would like you to bring my mom something special for her from me.

Ruby Reid,
Georgetown

Dear Ruby, Boy! You must have a lot of toys if you need a big box to put them all in! When I showed Mrs. Claus your letter, she said to tell you that she hopes you'll like the special gift she's sending you. It's not long now until I visit you on Christmas Eve, sweet dreams until then!

Love, Santa

Dear Santa, We won't light a fire so you can use our chimney. I would like a racer set or a GT snow racer. Also I would like a new jogging suit and I like books and puzzles too. We will leave a snack for you and the reindeer.

I love you,
Christopher Frei, Age 7

Dear Christopher, I liked the flower on the envelope of your letter, do you want to be an artist when you are older? Mrs. Claus has pinned it up in the elves' workroom so they can look at it while they are working. Thank you for the treats that you leave out, by the time the reindeer get to Georgetown, they are really hungry! I hope you will like the gifts that you get for Christmas!

Love, Santa
