Portrait unveiled

The Halton Board of Education honored its first director of education Thursday.

A portrait was unveiled of Jim Singleton, who became the director of education for the amalgamated school boards of Halton in 1969.

Down the drain

The town has written off more than $52,700 of its 1987 tax role. The annual account of taxes deemed uncollectable by the town's Treasury department was approved by council Dec. 14.

Of the $52,755 uncollectable tax dollars the town's portion is almost $14,500.

The remaining portion of the money will be struck from tax incomes to Halton Region and the Halton Board of Education, said the town's Deputy Treasurer Grant Usher.

Wins tender

Silvercreek Construction Ltd. has been awarded a contract worth $30,472 to renovate the Regional Health Department Building on Main Street in Milton.

Regional Council approved the tender by Silvercreek, which is located on 247 Armstrong Avenue in Georgetown, Dec. 9.
