

'I would really like a train and moon dreamer doll'

Dear Santa,
Hi! My name is Ashley Wild. I am 3 years old now. I think I have been a good girl this year, or tried most of the time. For Christmas I would really like a train, moon dreamer doll, a play typewriter, a purse with keys in it and a big red fire truck and Fisher Price Main Street. I will leave you some cookies and a drink for your reindeer.
Love Ashley Wild,
RR4, Acton

Dear Ashley,
I hope you like snow, from what I've heard on the weather report, Georgetown is getting a lot of it! Have you and your sister gone tobogganing yet? I've checked my 'Good Boys and Girls' list, and you have a star beside your name, which means that you've been a good girl, as long as you try to be good, you will still get your gifts. The elves have taken your list to the workshop and they are already hunting around for the fire truck. I hope they find one for you! Merry Christmas to you and your family Ashley!
Love, Santa

Dear Santa,
I hope you are well and that you and your elves are not too tired after making toys in your workshop all day. My name is Robert Whiteman and I am 3 1/2 years old. I have been a very good boy this year and for Christmas please could you bring me an Alpha II Computer, as I love playing with things that have lots of buttons to press. I would also like a doctor's bag and some new cars, books and games. I will make sure that I leave you some milk and cookies after your long journey, and some carrots for Rudolph. Thank you very much. Lots of Love,
Robert Whiteman,
Heather Court, Georgetown

Dear Robert,
Well, Robert, the elves are very busy, but we've been resting all year long, and we're quite used to the 'holiday rush' by now! I'll see what I can do about all the things you asked for, Mrs. Claus has gone off to search for storybooks already. (She'll pick out a really good story). Do you want to be a doctor or a computer operator when you get older, you're certainly getting an early start! Georgetown will be one of my first stops, and the snack will be great just before I go to Africa! I'll see you soon Robert!
Love, Santa

Dear Santa,
I want a camera with Kodak film, a gold fish, but be careful you put it up high because we have three cats, but they don't usually go after things like mice, fish, and other small animals, but still put it up high just in case. If you can't get me that, get me a wooden doll, house with furniture and two or three wooden dolls to go with it. If you can get me more, get me a pad of paper about the size of half this paper and a pencil with an eraser, the thing you erase with if you make a mistake.
Your friend,
Meredith L. Kenzie

Dear Meredith,
What are the names of your three cats? If I bring you a goldfish, I'll be sure to leave it in a very safe place. Have you bought Christmas gifts for your cats? You also asked for a wooden dollhouse. Mrs. Claus used to have one, all the elves loved to play with it, but, I think that it's in the attic right now. I'll see if I can find you one, you would enjoy playing with that, wouldn't you? Anyway, I have to go now because one of the reindeer is trying to eat your letter! I'll see you at Christmas Meredith!
Love, Santa

Dear Santa,
Thank you for the power x-treme toys. Please if you can bring me Ghostbusters figures and starcom-mand ship. I will leave milk and cookies and carrots.
Robert Wagner,
RR1 Georgetown

Dear Robert,
Are you looking forward to Christmas as much as I am? There are only a few days left before I leave on Christmas Eve. The elves have already packed most of the toys into my sleigh, and the reindeer do the '20 Minute Workout' every night before they go to bed, to make sure that they can carry all the toys. I'll do my best to get you everything that you have asked for - and I hope you'll like the other presents I bring for you too! Thank you for leaving me cookies, all of that fresh air makes me very hungry! I'll be sure to look in on you when I'm at your house, O.K.? So make sure you're sleeping!
Love, Santa

Hi Santa!
How are you, I'm fine. I would like a stroller like Jennifer Sage. And I would like Alf too! And I would like a star stamp with no bottom. Please write back on the back page. I love you Santa.
Love Jackie Grant, Age 7
Jason-Cres., Georgetown

Dear Jackie,
A stroller like Jennifer's? Hmm... I'll see what I can do, but I don't know if we have many left! But, I promise that I will try my best, Jackie. I'll choose the color that I think you'd like the best, O.K.? And you also said that you would like Alf. Do you watch his television show every week? I try to watch it up here as often as possible, Alf really is very funny, isn't he? I'll see you at Christmas, Jackie!
Love, Santa

Dear Santa,
Are you okay? I am feeling alright. How are your reindeer doing? I love Rudolph and I love you Santa. My name is Benjamin and I am 4 years old now. Soon I am going to have a new baby brother or sister. For Christmas may I please have a Ghostbuster proton pack since I am a Ghostbuster, or a Glow in the Dark train set, or a tape recorder. On Christmas Eve I will leave you some of my grandma's shortbread cookies and some Pepsi and a carrot for the reindeer. Please give Rudolph a kiss from me.

Love, Benjamin Burdett,
McIntyre Cres., Georgetown

Dear Santa Claus,
Hi, my name is Christopher Boone and I'm 5 years old. I just started Kindergarten and so far my teacher says I have been doing really good. My mom and dad said that I have been a good boy too. How have you

Love, Santa
P.S. I have some great surprises in mind for you and Julia!

Dear Santa Claus,
How are you and Mrs. Claus? I have been pretty good this year. I am going to leave apples out for your reindeer and cookies and a drink for you. I would like a Castle Grayskull and a hockey game this year.
Love Shaun Clapp

Dear Shaun,
Mrs. Claus and I are looking forward to Christmas! What about you? You said that you have been 'pretty good' this year, what do you mean by that? Ho! Ho! Don't worry, when I was a young boy, I used to get into trouble too! Anyway, the elves have almost finished all your gifts, there's just a few more to go! The reindeer love apples, and because we don't have any apple trees at the North Pole, it will be a real treat for them! Merry Christmas to you and your family Shaun!
Love, Santa

Letters to Santa

Dear Ben,
I can't wait for Christmas to get here, what about you Benjamin? Are you excited about getting a new brother or sister? I would be! Just think, when she gets older, you can teach her how to 'ghostbust' too! Ho! Ho! The reindeer are fine, and so is Rudolph. In fact, there are about five of them right now playing, well, it looks like hopscotch to me. I'm pretty sure that it's Donner, Blitzen, Comet and Cupid, and of course, Rudolph. You can spot his nose from quite a distance. I'll tell you what, on Christmas Eve, make sure you peek out the window. If you can see a single red glow in the sky, you know it's Rudolph and the rest of us, O.K.? I hope you like your gifts Ben!
Love, Santa
P.S. Tell your Grandmother that I love her shortbread cookies!

Dear Santa Claus,
Hi, my name is Cindy Boone and I'm two years old. I have been a good girl this year and I even try to give my mommy around the house (even though she says I just make things worse). How have you and Mrs. Claus been this past year? I guess your elves are really busy trying to get everything ready for you. Well for Christmas this year I would like the Alf doll, a new doll stroller, some pretend food for my dolls, the potato head family, some new pierced earrings and some of the duplo blocks. Mom says not to ask for too much because you're too busy. So I'll leave some milk and cookies out for you on Christmas Eve and some carrots for your reindeer. Bye for now. Love always.
Cindy Boone,
Park Ave., Georgetown

Dear Cindy,
I think it's very nice of you to try and help your mother. If I bring you pretend food, you could pretend that you are fixing her lunch or dinner! Do you think she would like that? The elves are working non-stop on all of your gifts, I think we'll have all the toys finished just in time for take-off. Expect a few surprises too, Cindy! (Tell your brother that for me too please).
Are you helping your mother bake special Christmas cookies for me to have on Christmas Eve? I can't wait to try them! And milk always goes well with cookies, don't you think? I'll see you at Christmas Cindy, make sure you're fast asleep when I arrive!
Love, Santa

been this past year? I hope you didn't have the flu. For Christmas this year I would like to have some new Lego blocks and a new racing car, some Ghostbusters, play-doh, new clothes, some new cars and trucks. Well I guess I'd better stop now because mom told me not to ask for much. Bye for now and have a Merry Christmas and a safe and Happy New Year.
Love Always,
Christopher Boone,
Park Ave., Georgetown

Dear Christopher,
You just started Kindergarten, Christopher? Why, I remember when you were only up to my knee, and I left you all of your toys, I guess you're too old now to remember that, aren't you? I'm glad that you're doing well in school, and I have talked to your teacher and she told me that you've been making excellent progress. Well done Christopher! I'll try to get you most of the toys on your list, and I'll include some gifts that Mrs. Claus and I picked out for you ourselves! Say hello to your mom and dad for me, and I'll be seeing you soon!
Love, Santa

Dear Santa,
Did you have a nice summer? Next Saturday I'm getting my Christmas tree. For Christmas I would like a big boys watch, an eraser, a cement truck, a little train and a new money bag. Please bring a blanket and a soft doll for my baby sister, Julia. I am going to leave you milk and cheese on Christmas Eve.
Your friend,
Cameron Sissett,
6th Line, Limehouse

Dear Cameron and Julia,
I had a very nice summer thank you, I went ice-fishing a few times, and the reindeer and I tried skiing too. I never knew how difficult it was to find two very long skis with four bindings, (for the reindeer). But, they really enjoyed skiing, so it was worth it. By the time you read this letter you've probably bought your Christmas tree and decorated it too! I'll take a good long look at it while I'm at your house on Christmas Eve, I'm sure you've done a wonderful job of decorating Cameron! Thank you for leaving me a snack, but, if you leave me milk, please leave out a napkin too! I don't want to visit everyone's house wearing a 'milk moustache'. Ho! Ho!
