

Outlook on Halton Hills

Piles of food and toys came into the Good Neighbors collection centre on Delrex Boulevard at Highway 7 Dec. 22. In all, 96 families in Georgetown received hampers from the Good Neighbors program yesterday (Dec. 23). Chairperson Sienna

Van Hoekelen thanked the Georgetown Lionesses for volunteering to take over the program next year. Here, Mrs. Van Hoekelen squeezed one of the gifts while Michelle Smyth (5), Manda Melvin (11) and Alaine Melvin (9) adored some of the furry animals. The baskets full of food are just a small sample of what came in to the Good Neighbors. (Herald photo)

Three-car collision

A Georgetown woman suffered minor injuries in a three-car collision at 4:40 p.m. on Main Street North at Kennedy Road in Acton Dec. 19.

Kimberly MacPherson, 25, was treated and released from Georgetown hospital.

A 1976 Chevrolet was stopped southbound on Main Street awaiting a vehicle in front to turn left onto Kennedy Road. A 1979 Dodge was almost stopped behind the Chevrolet when it was struck from behind by a 1984 Chevrolet driven by a 50-year-old Acton resident.

Damage to the 1984 Chevrolet is $2,000, damage to the Dodge is $2,000 and the 1976 Chevrolet received $100 damage. Charges of following too closely have been laid in the accident.

Acton Meals on Wheels was busy serving out meals to 19 people Dec. 22. Guide Leader Helen Dubau, now in her tenth year of running the Meals on Wheels program, sometimes brings in some Guides or Brownies to help out in delivering all the meals. Here, Colleen Poot, of the 1st Ospringe Guides holds up a Meals on Wheels bag soon to be delivered to a hungry person. (Herald photo)

Amy Allen and Kevin Haskins, both from Harrison Public School obtained the most pledges for the annual Rotary Skate-a-thon held Nov. 1, and were rewarded last week for their efforts. The two were presented with new bicycles by the

Rotary Club's president Terry Dickinson, and Skate-a-thon chairman Ken Faulkner. Proceeds from the Skate-a-thon go to charities in the community. (Herald photo)
