Neil's Music team impressive in London

Peewees come close at tourney

By MIKE MARSHALL
 Herald Special
 Neil's Music Peewee house league hockey team came within about three minutes of reaching the championship game in the London Minor Hockey Tournament last weekend.
 Coach Mike Marshall feels that had he kept three men back for the last four minutes of the final game, the Georgetown team would have had an excellent chance to play in the championship game.
 The peewee squad played the finest hockey they have this year, in Game One and Game Three of the tournament.

the Georgetown MVP: Blaine Kennedy and Robbie Brown also played strong games.
 It was heart attack city in the stands as Georgetown and Harvey's of London played one of the most exciting games of the London tournament late Saturday night.
 London went ahead 1-0 in the first period before Kevin Shaw scored assisted by Mike Toyne. Andrew Marshall then put Georgetown ahead 2-1 as he was assisted by Ruffolo and Brown.
 London tied the game in the second period only to have Marshall score for Georgetown from Ryan Scott and Shaw. London went ahead 4-3 in the third period only to have Georgetown tie the game 4-4 as Rioux scored from Marshall.
 Georgetown then went ahead 5-4 with Michael Toyne scoring from Shaw and Bobby Campbell.
 It was at this point that Coach Marshall feels that keeping three men back with five minutes to go in the game might have put Georgetown in the final.
 London came on strong as Georgetown tried to score the insurance goal. They tied the game up as Georgetown was caught up-ice and Ryan Scott put in very strong games for Georgetown.
 Georgetown looked a little tired for the Saturday morning game as many of the players stayed up late Friday night after their game.
 The Robert Gordon team of London, who had the advantage of staying in their own homes, were fresh Saturday morning and were able to skate around the Georgetown team almost at will to win the game 7-3. London went ahead 2-0 before Andrew Marshall scored from Rioux.
 London scored three more goals before Bobby Campbell scored from Ruffolo and Rioux. Rioux tallied between two London scoring plays, with Marshall and Robbie Brown assisting. Derek Ruffolo was chosen the game as he scored five of their six goals. Some Georgetown parents think that some players on the London team saw little if any ice.

 Kevin Shaw received MVP honors for the Georgetown team.
 Andrew Marshall and Bobby Campbell played strong two-way hockey for Georgetown.
 The London tournament was a well run tournament according to Coach Marshall and assistant coach Jamie Rankine. The players and the parents had a very good time and would certainly encourage other Georgetown teams to go to the tournament next year.

Flights upset high-flying Hustlers in darts

It was back to nine-game matches this past Wednesday in the Georgetown Industrial Darts League.

Hustlers went in to a 2-0 lead over Flights, then went up 4-1 and seemed to become complacent, eventually going down 4-5. All credit to Flights for the comeback and giving Hustlers only their second loss of the season.

Westenders took the first six games over Independents on the way to victory.

Firemen came back from 1-4 to 4-5 in the end with Panthers.

Exports and Ensigns had a hammer and tonga match with Exports coming out on top by the odd game.
 Inter County ran off the first three games on their way to a win over Aces. Bandits and Snowjacks battled all the way with Snowjacks pulling off the last game for the win. Rollers strung out middle of the match wins to defeat close rivals Bulldogs. Eliminators again failed to show and gave up nine games by default to Taxmen.

On individual highlights, top of the tree is Dan Fraser with a maximum 180, two opens and two closes. Joe Cairns had six opens and a finish. Bryan Turner came in with two closes and I knocked a 125. Ace Bailey scorched the scoreboard with four scores over the ton. Jim Carter finished on 74. Ken Baker and Terry Hancock scored 140s. Jim Franks opened with 120 and Peter Buckley scored a high 121. Dennis Thorogood replied with 125. Russ Daigle also knocked 125 and Tim Field went 10 better. Field also had two starts and Daigle two finishes. Al Murphy opened with 92 and Bruce McCartney finished 71 in two darts. Lloyd Westlake, Bill Hall and Dave Tomlinson all scored over the ton. Paul Kirby had two opens and closes. Colin "Stringpole" Broadbent had four starts and a finish and Mark Bruce McCartney also popped in a 134.

This week sees the singles championship with many players capable of winning. Once again the draw will play an important part in who goes through. Some interesting opening round games are on hand. Myself and Harry Bottoms, the winner playing Jack Hamilton is not an easy forecast. Brian Hicks vs Pete Robinson, the winner going on to meet the waiting Rick Hardin. Dennis Thorogood vs Brian Beaumont, Eddie Plackett vs Henry Graham, Ken Baker vs Jim Nicholson, Danny Fraser vs Dave Tomlinson, Larry LeBannister vs John Malby, Ron Scarlett awaits the winner of Ian McDonald and Ron Duval.

 I will not attempt a forecast of possible winners. Having done well enough on the last tournament forecasts I will rest on my laurels.
 Incidentally, Bob Siniaev, from Ontario, is ranked in the top 10 in the professional world of darts. With an American also in the top flight darts is a game which is truly becoming international and no longer a game played in British pubs and clubs. Englishman Eric Bristow, the 'Crazy Cockney' is in his mid-30s and has won the world championship five times (or more) and is succeeded by Bob Anderson, another Englishman. More next week.
