Jutta Pettingill gifted artist

By KAY WILSON
Herald Special

NORVAL-The funeral of Mrs. Jutta Pettingill took place in Holy Cross Roman Catholic Church, Georgetown, on December 3, 1987 following a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Pettingill was born in Ramsdorf, West Germany, on March 14, 1930. Prior to her marriage she trained as a nurse at the Edenvale Hospital near Johannesburg, South Africa. Later she took a course in Midwifery in England and, on coming to Canada, qualified as a Registered Nurse in this country. She had the distinction of being a fully qualified nurse in South Africa, England and Canada.

In 1979, after a course of study in Erindale College, University of Toronto, she achieved her Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology. She taught Psychology at Sheridan College, Brampton Campus, and at the Credit Valley School of Nursing. She did private nursing in connection with hospitals in Georgetown and Brampton.

As a hobby she was a gifted artist and, on occasion, painted murals for stage plays and other community activities. She was active in the Norval Community Centre, and a member of the Prayer Group in Holy Cross Church. She also managed the Diet Center in Georgetown for a number of years.

She was a most helpful and considerate person and was quick to respond wherever she saw the need.

Jutta is survived by her husband Tom, and six of her seven children, Mary Churchill of Montreal; Rebecca Hilton of Toronto; Timothy, deceased in 1981; Sonja Norris of Saudi Arabia; Christa of Toronto and Helen and John both of Guelph University, as well as three grandchildren. She is also survived by a brother Dr. Jockim Schulling, and two sisters Elisabeth Muller and Dr. Charlotte Hagemann, all of West Germany.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Jutta's husband Tom and family.

Get well wishes to Jessie McKinnin, of RRI Norval, mother of Peggy Early, who is a patient in the Wellensley Hospital in Toronto.

Congratulations to Derek and Carol Reid of Gem, Alberta, on the birth of their son Mathew Craig James on Feb. 18. Derek was a former Norval area boy, the son of Marjorie Reid of Milton Manor, and the late W.T. Craig Reid. Their farm on Mountalnview Road South was taken up by the Delrex Development. Later they bought the farm on 10 Sideroad between the 8th and 9th Line, and hosted the 1974 International Plowing Match.

Pinegrove Euchre had three tables on Monday last. Winners were - Grace May, Ethel Webb, Bill Brander, John Hunter, Ludy Draw - Mary Wilson, Lunch Committee - Grace May and Claude McLaughlin.

Norval Community Euchre had six tables on Thursday last. Winners were - Dorothy Cook, Myra Peasey, Marie Murray, Russell Hussey, Lone hands - Garfield McGilvray, Ludy draw - June Hussey.

"Brighter the corner where you are," opened the Unit 1 meeting of Norval United Church Women. The meeting was held at the home of Given Laidlaw with nine members and one visitor enjoying dessert lunch at 1:30 p.m.

President Dorothy McLean presided, and business included a discussion on an altar cloth as well as seat covers for the pews. World Day of Prayer is March 5, 10 a.m. in the United Church. A garage sale along with a bake table will be held at the church on May 7, and the 50th wedding anniversary of the Forgraves (former members) is July 1. Roll Call was an exchange of Valentines. Marion Laird gave the devotional "God has a Covenant". Agnes Miller read a letter she receives once a year from an in Whitehouse. His wife Lee had just been made a Deacon and was visiting parishioners in out-lying areas.

Eunice Wilson read an article "Who is a Senior" and a vote of thanks was moved by Ethel Webb, to Given Laidlaw for hosting the meeting.

Welcome home to Elsie Jarvie, who spent a month visiting her daughter and family in Anaheim, California.

The Lorne Scots has a wonderful military record, but as far back as the late 1930s, the local regiment also captured a number of area music festival championships. This picture was taken in the '30s, according to Dick Riddall who submitted the photo. The band then won the Waterloo music festival and also collected music trophies in counties in the Waterloo and Stratford areas.

The schedule has changed and you will be playing euchre in Oakville, not Cooksville, Feb. 27. We hope for a good turn-out for the chili dinner and dance on March 5 for the friends of our American cousins, put on by the Plymouth group. Tickets will go on sale behind the bar for the St. Patrick's dinner and dance to be held on March 12.

Zone darts will be held in Georgetown March 5 and this should be a winning day for us. In future columns you will hear about open darts and the beginning of our diamond jubilee festivities.

Barbara Reyce is working very hard at her therapy and is determined to "come back" as she told Mae Lawr. Well done Barbara. Myrna Brayley is in hospital again and would you believe it? She broke the same leg again. We wish you a speedy recovery Myrna and do take care.

Ashgrove women talk about credit ratings

By MARION HUNTER
Outlook Special

The members of Ashgrove Women's Institute found out how to apply for credit and the reasons for the various questions on the form. They were also informed that with proper credentials they could check if a future client was a secure business risk. The speaker was Harry Lockwood, manager of the Credit Bureau of Brampton Ltd. This Family and Consumer Affairs meeting was held at Hillcrest Church on Tues. Feb. 16 with Marlon McPhail as hostess and Muriel McClure as program convener.

The assistant secretary, Elizabeth Wilson called the roll answered by "What I find most frustrating about shopping." Answers included advertised specials not being in the store or not in their usual space, a mix of metric and pound weights on similar items making comparison shopping difficult, no conformity on garment sizing.

The president, Doreen Wickson, welcomed Hornby W.I. who were guests at the 62nd birthday of Ashgrove.

During the past month the members catered to the wedding of Carolyn Bird and Ming Whan. Other members are busy quilting and hope to have the quilt ready for sale by the end of February. Plans are being made for a Euchre party on March 25, at Ligny School with a Bread Sale

Dow Canada President, David Buzzell described both the clean up process and the education program that Dow have developed as a result of the incident.
