

Sports Outlook

The Kinsmen Club has been working to raise funds for minor hockey, as one of their many community services. A special puck dropping ceremony was held at the start of a GMHA Game of the Week contest on March 3, and some of the funds contributed by the Kinsmen are being used to keep this program operating. Seen here for the official puck drop of a Novice game between Young's Pharmacy and Tim Horton's Donuts, are from left, Sammy Bull, (Young's Captain), Randy Schaefer and Ron Lefebvre of the Kinsmen, Carson Minalch (GMHA President), and Darrin Finlayson (Horton's Captain).

As the playoffs wind down in Novice House League hockey, the Kinsmen squad continues to run away with it all, as they dumped Tim Horton's 5-1 Saturday. Kyle Hancock scored twice with Jason Brownridge, Robbie Pilgrim and Stephen Markham adding singles. Horton sniper Darin Finlayson was kept off of the scoresheet for the first time this season, and only Steve Sheppard was able to beat Kinsmen goalie Scott Herbert in the loss. Robert McLeod earned Player of the Week honors as his three-goal outing sparked his team to a 5-1 decision over the still winless Young's Pharmacy squad. Seven-year-old Select goalie Joey Barber also picked up his second Goalie of the Week selection as he was superb throughout the contest, allowing just one goal for the win. Barber also foiled Young's Aaron Dunlop on a penalty shot early in the third period. Also scoring for M and M were Robert Larose with one goal and three assists and Geoffrey Bahr adding a single. Jamie Scarlett scored the lone Young's goal as the second period wound down. This week's action leaves the Kinsmen all alone in first place with eight points, M and M Pro Sports and Tim Horton's tied in second with four points while Young's is in last, still winless in these playoffs.

Firefighters bounce back after loss

By RON KERSLAKE

The Tri County playoffs for the Major Novice AA McNally Construction Georgetown Firefighters are going well as the team is 3-1 after four games. The first game in the round robin series was a 1-0 loss to Orangeville. Excellent goaltending by Andrew Craig kept the score down and even though they carried the play, the Fighters couldn't score. They did score in Milton and rolled up a 6-0 win. Starting with Aaron McLaughlin on a scramble, and then Andy Kerslake's shot from the slot, the boys didn't look back. After Pete, Mashinter got one of his two goals, Andy added another and Curt Carr scored too. The assists were recorded by Aaron, Curt, Pete, and Tim Van Hinte with Jamie Briggs getting three and Gary McIven two.

The next night in Chinguacousy, it was the point shots that won it as the Fighters prevailed 5-3. Tim Van Hinte scored with a Ching defender on his back and then Pete used Ryan Taylor as a decoy to get the second goal. Ken Armstrong potted one from the point and so did Jamie Briggs - a pair of those goals that bring the defencemen into the offence of the game. Pete and Tim teamed up for the fifth goal in a rough and tumble game that could have been mistaken for Peeewe level body contact.

The second game against Orangeville was a must-win to stay alive for the finals of Tri County. It was a close 4-3 win for the Fighters with Pete Mashinter scoring the first three goals.

Heritage Notes

OHA honor

Bob MacKinnon, immediate past president of the OHA made a special presentation to the GHHC members of a plaque, to acknowledge their contributions to hockey. In making the presentation, MacKinnon thanked the group members for their time and dedication, and "for furthering the cause of this great Canadian game."

Looking ahead

GHHC Chairman Dave Kentner announced that for next year's event, there will be Molson Canadian Cup Hockey Game, to feature members of Toronto oldtimers' hockey, against a team that will come out of the Kitchener and Guelph area.

The game will be staged the first Sunday afternoon in March, with the Heritage Dinner to follow on the Monday evening.

ASK KATHY

Is There a Link Between Diet And Cancer?

It's impossible to say that eating certain foods will definitely give you cancer, but research shows that people who consume a diet that is high in fat (the average American diet is 40 to 45 percent fat) are considerably more likely to develop cancer of the breast, colon, prostate, or female reproductive system. While eating a low-fat diet may not protect you from cancer, it may reduce the likelihood that you will develop it.

At Diet Center we teach you how to establish dietary habits that are based on sound nutritional principles. Not only will you learn how to lose weight, but you'll also learn how to plan nutritional meals for the rest of your life. Come in to Diet Center today for a free consultation and let us show you how you can establish better eating habits.
