THE PHILLIPS FAMILY IN THE 1850's

Samuel Phillips ran an insurance and real estate business and operated a telegraph for the Montreal Telegraph Company. These enterprises were carried out in an office in the rear of James Young's hardware store which was located on the corner of Church and Main Streets. His home was a cottage located at the rear of James Young's block.

James Young's wife was Samuel's sister. Samuel's other sisters were Mrs. Dade (wife of Rev. Dade who ran the Georgetown Academy), Edith and Tomasina who all lived in Georgetown. James Young built Edith Street, so the sisters could easily visit Helen Dade who lived on the 7th line on the way to Stewarttown. The elder Dr. Phillips was vice-principal of Upper Canada College and later became Rector of the Church of England in Etobicoke.

Special thanks to Elaine Bertrand.
"St. George's Anglican Church - A History", by Rev. Richard E. Ruggle was used as a reference.
