Trio takes Bantam title

A total of six players shared in the scoring as Trio Mart edged Georgetown Rental 7-5, to win the Bantam House League championship crown last Saturday during Georgetown Minor Hockey Association's Day of Champions.

Jamie Tripp notched a pair of markers for Trio Mart, while Steve Burt, Scott Dobins, Jeff Hannah, David Lawrence, and Adam Moneypenny all chipped in with singles.

Burt also helped the Trio Mart cause with three assists, while Lawrence had a pair, and Dobins, Tripp, Nick Kilpin, Steve Brown, and Mike Osborne had an assist each.

For Georgetown Rental, Mike Melville powered his team's offensive attack with three goals, while Mike Barnes and Tom Rasmussen added singles.

Jeff Smith had a pair of assists for Georgetown Rental in the contest, and Rasmussen, Chris Hyde, Alan Fudge, Bob Dezeuw, and Jeff Smith had an assist apiece.

A number of individual awards were given out to deserving players during the Day of Champions. Winners were: Most Valuable Player - Mike Melville (Georgetown Rental); Most Improved Player - Ed Doyle (Mal Dodge ReMax); Most Sportsmanlike Player - Sean Gardner (Chicken Villa); Rookie of the Year - Chris Burns (Trio Mart); and Top Goalie - Ron Desrochers (Georgetown Honda).

Award winners

During the GMHA's Day of Champions, individual players from the Midget-Juvenile house league program were honored with the presentation of trophies.

Winners among the Midget players were: Most Valuable Player - Andy Domingos; Most Improved Player - Gary Staden; Most Sportsmanlike Player - Martin Barnard; Rookie of the Year - Stephen Lee.

Among the Juvenile players, the award recipients were: Most Valuable Player - Brad Klavkals; Most Improved Player - Jim Chartrand; Most Sportsmanlike Player - Jeff McNiven; and Rookie of the Year - Rick Percival and Gary Butwell.

It wasn't only the players who were honored at the GMHA's Day of Champions. Several coaches, who obviously stood out among their peers, were named to receive awards, as well.

Eric Rideout was named the Coach of the Year for the Senior hockey program, and Chuck Peebles was named Coach of the Year for the Junior division.

For the Tyke/Novice division, Bill Jackman was named top coach, and for rep teams, Keith Bennett of the M and M Pro Sports Major Bantams was named Coach of the Year.
