Mayors race

Registrations are now being accepted for the Mayor's Tenth Annual Road Race to be held Sunday, June 12. Entry forms can be picked up at the Acton Arena or the Georgetown Recreation and Parks Department on James Street.

Parks open

The Credit Valley Conservation Authority's Conservation Areas opened for the summer season on May 14, 1988 at 8:30 a.m. These areas include Meadowvale Conservation Area, Terra Cotta Conservation Area, Bellfountain Conservation Area, and the Orangeville Conservation Area. There are a variety of opportunities available for families to enjoy throughout a stay. Activities such as fishing, picnicking, hiking, swimming and camping (daily, weekly, monthly or seasonal) are just some of the things a family can experience this season at the Conservation Areas.

If you wish to make camping reservations, please contact Terra Cotta Conservation Area at 1-416-877-9650 and if you would like fee information or operating times, please contact the Credit Valley Conservation Authority at 1-416-451-1615.

Ready for challenge

It's thumbs up as Mayor Russ Miller and Neilson's representative Robert Yates help recreation special event supervisor Joanne Wilson remind residents of the upcoming Participation Challenge on May 25. Halton Hills is challenging Oakville in the annual fitness contest and Neilson's is sponsoring the local event. (Herald photo)
