Georgetown will turn back the clock once again this year for Pioneer Days June 16-18.

Organizer Margaret Vint is making sure there is something for everybody at this year's extravaganza.

The weekend officially opens at 7:30 p.m. Thursday with the opening ceremonies including a parade by the Georgetown Girls Pipe Band followed by entertainment from the singing harmony a capello quartet New Image.

But events actually get underway much earlier with a sidewalk sale beginning at 9:30 a.m.

One of the major features throughout the weekend will be Dr. Bandoli's Travelling Goodtime Show featuring "Dr. B-King of the Rubber Chickens" and "Picasso-The Clown of Art."

Dr. Bandoli will be appearing at 12 noon and 4 p.m. on Thursday and again at 11:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. on Friday. His travelling road show will wrap up Pioneer Days with performances at 10:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Saturday.

Thursday's events also feature wreathmaking from Whimsy's, music for tots by Keynote Kids Studio, folk art painting, a licensed patio garden and dancing in the street from 9 p.m. to midnight.

The sidewalk sale continues on Friday with Trudy Thomas's Bubblemania, featuring the world's largest bubbles, keeping kids young and old entertained at 11 a.m.

The licensed patio garden opens at noon Friday with Keynote Kids Music for tots and Bubblemania putting on shows throughout the day.

The teen musical group 2000 MPH will take to the street at 5:30 p.m. and Whimsy's will put on a pen and ink sketching demonstration from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

John McDonald and Sound Investment - a band specializing in 60s and 70s music, will wrap up the day with dancing in the street at 8:30 p.m. Friday.

The Lions Club pancake breakfast goes on Saturday at 8:30 a.m. followed by a sidewalk sale and a bake sale on Wesleyan Street.

The Halton Hills Recreation Department will hold children's activities beginning at 10 a.m. Saturday and the licensed patio opens again at noon.

Sound Investment plays again at noon Saturday and the big Pioneer Costume Contest for all ages starts at 3 p.m.

The group 2000 Miles Per Hour plays again at 4 p.m. and Dr. Bandoli's Travelling Goodtime Show wraps up Pioneer Days at 4:30 p.m.

In addition there are special events running all day Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Model Steam engines, rope making, face and hand painting, free balloons, draws, as well as the Penneisworth "Youngest Pioneer Award" and the presentation of the arrival of the first baby born during Pioneer Days.

Antique cars will also be on display all weekend at Pioneer Days.
