— ACTON —

"Danville" was Acton's first name. Wheeler Gree had established the first dry goods store in the area, and Danville was named for one of the clerks in the shop.

"Adamsville" was Acton's second name. In 1834 the first settlers in the area, Zenas, Rufus and Ezra Adams had a patent issued to them for the west half of lot 28, concession 2, Esquesing comprising 100 acres.

In 1844, Acton had a Post Office. Its postmaster was Robert Swan, a native of Northumberland, England. Robert was responsible for the naming of "Acton".
