TSN Skins Game

Local bowler looking to strike gold

Bill Anderson of Georgetown is hoping his prowess on the bowling lanes can help earn him some big money in the near future.

Anderson is one of 16 Ontario bowlers who will vie for over $16,000 in prize money in the second ever TSN five-pin Skins Game competition. Provincial semi-finals will be held in the new year with winners advancing to a Canada-wide final, all to be taped for viewing on The Sports Network.

"It's based on the skins game in golf," said Anderson after winning the western Ontario five-pin competition in Cambridge recently. "The score doesn't count for much, it's based on frame by frame competition."

Anderson bested 44 other bowlers in capturing the western Ontario skins title. He hopes to continue his streak into the semi-finals. Frames are worth $50 in the preliminary rounds and rise to $400 in the finals and Anderson figures the overall winner could collect a tidy $6,000 for a day on the lanes.

"It'll be a close competition," said Anderson of the upcoming semifinals. "Fraser Hambly, the eastern Canadian champ, will be there. He's beaten me and I've beaten him. There are also a lot of really good young bowlers competing."

Anderson, who has been rolling the five pins down for over 25 years, has enjoyed much competitive success since returning to the alley after a 10-year hiatus from the sport about 12 years ago. This year alone the local bowler figures he's made about $2,500 in various tournaments and competitions. He said some of the fringe benefits of winning a tournament are also attractive. "I won an all-expense paid trip to compete in the Molson Open in Saskatoon," said Anderson, citing one example.

Of his layoff, Anderson said he was just "playing too much," and needed a break from the lanes. "I was also having a bad year so it was a good time to leave for a while," he quipped.

Currently, Anderson bowls at Brampton Bowl about two times a week. He says he bowls about 10 tournaments a year and will consider a return to the coaching ranks once his competitive commitments ease up.

"I coached for about six or seven years a while back," he said. "But right now I want to concentrate on my own game."

For Anderson, whose personal high score is a 435, that concentration would ideally pay off with a TSN Skins Game title win in 1989.

Legion wins Clarkson tourney

Carrie Gallant hurled all four games as the shorthanded Georgetown squad with only 10 players, due to exams, went on to win all four games in winning the recent Clarkson tournament.

Georgetown's first game was against Bloordale and Georgetown came away with a close 3-1 victory. Gallant had 11 strike-outs in her first game. She also helped her own cause by reaching base three times and scoring one run.

Cindy Dunn played a solid game on first base and also reached base three times. Kim Hagan did the catching for Georgetown and showed she had lost nothing from last year reaching base two out of three times. Georgetown could not get used to the slow pitching in this game as they left 11 base runners stranded.

Game two: Georgetown 7 Milton 5

Milton came out swinging and scored two runs in the first inning as Georgetown came up with two errors to help them. Georgetown came back with one in the second on Susan Subject lead off homerun and one in the third. Georgetown's big inning was the fifth with Kara-Lynn Palmer getting hit by a pitch. Jeanette Brandford reaching first on an error. Laura Richardson reaching base on a walk to load them up for Tara Bouskill who cleaned them off with a grand slam homerun. Carrie Gallant then advanced to second on a passed ball and came home on Teri Korzack's double. Gallant struck out five and issued four walks.

Game three: Georgetown 17 Chinguacousy 3

Georgetown bats came alive in this game as they pounded three Ching pitchers in this short two-and-one-half inning game. Big play in this game was Lyn Gourley throw from right field to catcher Hagan to get the runner at home plate. Georgetown batted around the lineup in the second inning as Richardson, Bouskill and Brandford each scored twice. Gallant struck out three and walked five in this short game.

Game four: Georgetown 15 Clarkson 5

Clarkson bats came alive in this game as they pounded three Georgetown pitchers in this short two-and-one-half inning game. Big play in this game was Lyn Gourley throw from right field to catcher Hagan to get the runner at home plate. Georgetown batted around the lineup in the second inning as Richardson, Bouskill and Brandford each scored twice. Gallant struck out three and walked five in this short game.

This game started off fast as Georgetown was leading 1-0 after two innings on Teri Korzack's homerun in second. Georgetown scored three in the third, four in the fourth, three in the fifth as Lyn Gourley smacked a home run to get things rolling and four in the seventh. Georgetown gave up three in the fifth and two in the sixth.

Tara Bouskill started catching this game but was replaced by Kim Hagan in the fourth due to the injury to Susan Subject. Bouskill went to third and Jeanette Brandford filled in at short for Subject. Gallant had a triple in the third in the third to drive in two runs.

Kara-Lynn Palmer had a triple, double and a walk on four times at the plate. Richardson and Hagan reached base four out of five times. Cindy Dunn again was a standout at first base. Gallant had 11 strikeouts and issued four walks in this her fourth game of the day.

Georgetown's next home game is Tuesday, June 28 at the Fairgrounds against Sheridan.
