Staff training

Ready... Set... Go "Just For The Fun Of It" Summer '88 is here in full force and the Halton Hills Recreation and Parks Department is working hard to place the final touches on our Team Kids Staff Training Conference 1988. Scheduled for June 27, 28, 29 the three day residential training session is being held at the Blue Springs Scout Reserve. In our efforts to maintain high standards in our program this extensive residential training covers a wide variety of topics. Summer Supervisors provide a strong background in creative program planning, child behavior management, out trip procedures, group dynamics and team building. We are fortunate to have three guest speakers who will attend this year's Team Kids Conference. John Kirkpatrick from the Stoney Creek Recreation and Parks Department who will discuss how to identify a child in need. As all of our programs are integrated Katherine Earl Kirby will join us to conduct a session on special needs. Ms. Kirby is an educational consultant and has much experience with challenged and special needs children. Although our staff is required to have a Standard First Aid Certificate, Gord Kersey, from the Canadian Red Cross Society, will give our staff an emergency refresher session. All of our staff have been carefully chosen specifically because of their special abilities, enthusiasm and strong interest in working with children. It is a pleasure to welcome back and introduce to you our Team Kids from last year as well as to extend a warm Halton Hills Recreation and Parks Department hello to those who are leaders with us for the first time this year: Helen Bilik, Heather Bergama, Michelle Cameron, Rosemary Davidson, Mark Duke, Lynn Hamilton, Heather Johnston, Chris Lewis, Lori Marks, Melissa Morey, Tracey Quinton, Karen Sowery, Jane Sewell, David Thorpe, Tamara West, Greg Socha, Athena Riedstra. If you have any questions about our staff training or our upcoming summer programs please do not hesitate to contact us at 877-5185.

Eagles demolish Guelph

In the biggest rout of the season for Georgetown Juvenile Eagles, the team demolished Guelph on June 21 in Guelph 24-2. Georgetown's record is now an impressive 5-1. In the end Georgetown pounded out 23 hits. Meanwhile, Eagle pitching allowed only four hits by Guelph. So effective was Eagle pitching, that it was not until the ninth inning when Georgetown made an error in the field that allowed Guelph its first run. Both Guelph runs were unearned. Although the Eagles jumped out to an early 2-0 lead, after the first inning, it was not until the fourth inning that their bats got hot. Pounding out six hits in the inning, three of which were doubles, Georgetown easily distanced themselves from Guelph. Up until then, the starting Guelph pitcher could not be hit with much power. The rout was so convincing, that each Georgetown player that showed up, except one, base hit Guelph pitching. While everyone had a good game, the big run producers were first baseman Moe Kerter, and catcher Rob Ogden. Each knocked in five runs apiece. Both also scored five runs in total. Although reliever Brent Falcone only went two innings, he chalked up another victory.
