FOR SALE
55 MAIN ST. N., ACTON

This beautiful old home dates back to the mid-1800's when the population of Acton was less than a few hundred people. The lot was sold in 1857 to Malcome Kennedy by Rufus and Maria Adams for twelve pounds, ten shillings. Rufus was, as previously discussed, along with his brothers Ezra and Zenas, the first settlers in Acton.

Mr. Kennedy was a young Scottish stone mason and he built a small cottage on the lot. As the family increased to include four daughters and two sons, the original cottage roof was removed, the walls extended for a second storey and a gable roof constructed. Eventually Mr. Kennedy became blind but the house remained in the Kennedy family for two generations.

After many years, the house came into the possession of its present owners, the Snoeks. They have rebuilt rather than restore. The home now boasts a modern kitchen, bathroom and furnace. Dormer windows have been glorified and made deeper. Downstairs a sliding glass door leads to the patio and garden. Call Marvyn Morgan for your appointment to view this unique home. 853-2074.
