

Mini-golf triathlon highlight Kelso events

A pair of special events will highlight activity at Kelso Conservation Area near Milton during the month of July.

Mini-golf enthusiasts will be able to match their putting skills in the seventh annual mini-golf tournament on July 10 while some of Canada's top triathlete threats will battle it out on July 31 during the Canadian National Triathlon Championships.

Kelso mini-golf, sponsored by McDonald's, Hostess, Coca-Cola, Leeming Recreations Ltd. and the Ontario Agricultural Museum is open to all participants and tees-off at 10:30 a.m. on July 10. Registrations will begin at 10 a.m.

Up to 1,500 athletes are expected to assemble in Kelso for the annual National Triathlon Championships, marking the local conservation area's largest single event.

The Kelso triathlon features a regulation format of a 1-km swim followed by a 40-km bicycle ride and finishing with a 10-km run. Pre-registrations only are being accepted and interested triathletes should contact Graham Fraser at 945-2615.

Further information regarding events at Kelso Conservation Area may be obtained by dialing 878-5011.

Yanks, Padres top squirts

The Georgetown Baseball Association's Squire League played four games last week. Monday night the Glendale Fishing Charters Yankees outscored the McEachern Steering Specialties Giants and the Shaw Trophies Padres defeated the Thomson Moving Indians.

Battling for the Giants, Michael Armstrong hit a double and Brendan Smithson a triple. Mike Kitchen scored a homerun and Robert LaRose and Steve Gibbons played well on the field.

Thomas Arnold hit a homerun and a triple for the Yankees. Teammates Andrew Terrel and Geoff Bahr also had homeruns with Andrew adding a double and Geoff a single. Triples, doubles and singles were also hit by Sam Southworth, Glen Wood, David Pegg and Brad Densmore. Ken Thomson and Robert MacLeod made good fly ball catches and Robert made two outs on first base.

Steven Collins had two triples and a homerun to score five RBIs for the Indians. Adam Jackson added a triple for his team and Derek Lanthier a homerun. Josh Travers gave the Indians three RBIs and Brian Normore another RBI.

For the Padres, Andrew Nelissen slugged three homeruns, Michael Simon hit a pair of homers and Wesley Blight had a homerun. Michael Simon and Shane Copland each hit triples. On defence Brad Belford and Michael Simon made good plays while Nathan Martin, Adam Macdonald and Darryl Johnston batted in some runs.

Wednesday night winners were the Padres and Yankees.

The Crossway Donuts Cubs had Jonathan Howell with two homers and Shawn Weatherall and Garrett Norman each with a homerun. Mark Fedchyshyn hit a triple and Adam Stoyles and Dianne Allan each hit doubles. Fly ball catches were made by Garrett Norman and Mark Fedchyshyn.

The Glendale Fishing Charters Yankees had homeruns by Scott

Ellis (2), Andrew Terrill, Bryan Foster, Geoff Bahr and Sam Southworth. In the field, Robert McLeod caught a fly ball and Scott Ellis made two good plays.

On the second diamond, the McEachern Steering Specialties Giants had doubles by David Zeni and Ilya Woloshyn. Robert LaRose hit a homerun and made a great tag at second. Brendan Smithson and Mike Kitchen each caught fly balls and Brendan made a tag at home.

The Shaw Trophies Padres had a strong outing with grand slam homeruns by Wesley Blight and Stuart Scottford. Adam Macdonald hit a triple with two RBIs and Michael Simon a three RBI triple. Nathan Martin, Daniel Young (3), Kevin Swim and Andrew Nelissen batted in runs for their team. In the field Wesley Blight and Daniel Young made good catches. Wesley Blight teamed up with Nathan Martin and Daniel Young for a couple of outs.

Legion wins in fine style

The Georgetown Legion Girls' Softball team won the annual Chinguacousy tournament in fine style on June 25.

Georgetown's first game was against Clarkson and Georgetown came away with a close 10-9 win. Carrie Gallant pitched this game and recorded six strikeouts and issued four walks.

Georgetown's big inning was the second when they scored six runs. They also had one in the first and two more in the third to take a 9-2 lead into the fourth. Georgetown went to sleep as Clarkson woke up in the fourth. Clarkson scored three runs and then loaded the bases on errors and walks.

The next Clarkson batter cleaned them off with a grand slam to tie the game at 9-9. Susan Subject smashed a triple and Carolyn Stewart drove her in with a single to give Georgetown a 10-9 win.

Georgetown bats came alive in the first inning scoring six runs as the first six batters in the lineup scored. Georgetown scored one more in the third and gave up one in the third to take a 7-1 lead. Bridlewood scored one in the fourth and then Georgetown broke the game open with their bats. Homeruns by Lyn Gourley, Teri Korzack, Susan Subject and Carolyn Stewart erupted and 13 runs were across the plate in the fourth.

Georgetown continued in the fifth as Tara Bouskill and Michelle Webster kept it rolling each scoring twice as Georgetown scored 10 more runs. Carolyn Stewart played a standout game at first base fielding everything that went her way. She also scored four runs and reached base six times. Lyn Gourley and Teri Korzack shared the fielding duties as Georgetown kept their infield intact and went with just two fielders.

Georgetown had little trouble as they started off in game three against White Oaks with Richardson walking and Tara Bouskill bringing her home on a round tripper to lead 2-0 at the end of one. Georgetown went through the lineup and scored eight runs in the second. With Michelle Webster drawing a walk Carrie Gallant cranked a homerun to keep things rolling. Lyn Gourley and Susan Subject each scored also. Georgetown scored eight more in the fourth as walks and timely hits by Subject and Stewart did the damage.

Georgetown lost their shutout bid in the fourth when they gave up one run and one more in the fifth. Georgetown got three runs in their fifth inning to make the final 25-2.

Gallant had nine strikeouts in this game while giving up just one walk. Tara Bouskill caught this game, her third of the day. Carolyn Stewart again played standout ball as she was 5-5 and had five putouts at first. Julie Gourley showed her stamina as she reached base four out of five times in this her first midget game, as she played to give Georgetown nine players.

Hoosiers take first at Fergus

The Halton Hills Hoosiers Pee-wee Girls-Softball team won the championship at the Fergus Softball Tournament last week.

Buoyed by the fine pitching of Shannon Morris and the clutch hitting of Tammy Richard, the Hoosiers defeated Fergus 14-3. Listowel 24-0, Chinguacousy All-Stars 8-5 and Guelph 14-11 in the Grand Finale.

Shannon Morris was outstanding in pitching three victories and saving the championship win for Tammy Richard. "Shannon is pitching well to spots right now and is developing a good off-speed pitch, something she must have at this level. We've got to be careful not to wear her out," said manager Moe Leeking.

Tammy Richard has settled into being the leader behind the plate and the opposing team voted her MVP for the final game. Tammy hit a 1-2 pitch for a triple to clean the bases in the sixth inning of the final vs Guelph. That made the score 14-11 and the Hoosiers held on from there. Leslie Einman was outstanding in her two relief appearances.

Besides Morris and Richard who both hit well, Tracy Hagan, Stace Colorassi, Kelly Ambrose, Andrea Leeking, Deanna Louth, Kim Shepard, Sherrie Peacock, Wendy Graham, Leslie Einman and Amanda Tull had multiple hit weekends.

Amy Korzack, Andrea Leeking and Stacy Colorassi made defensive gems during the tournament.

The girls hope this tournament victory will give them impetus in their regular schedule as they battle to catch a playoff spot in the tough Peel-Halton loop.

In league play last week, the Hoosiers split with Burlington (13-6, 7-8) and lost to Chinguacousy.

The players and parents would like to thank last week's sponsor - The Cellar Restaurant.

Selects strong at Caledon

Congratulations to our 10-year-old boys Select Soccer team representing Georgetown in a field of eight teams.

They advanced to the semifinals by placing first in their division, defeating Bolton 1-0, Martingrove 5-0 and Inlington 4-1. The next day the team met Leaside and fought for an excellent 3-3 tie game but unfortunately lost 4-3 in a shoot out to decide the game.

Goal scorers for the tournament were Kevin Adema 2, Chris Goodhue 2, Ryan Gougeon 2, Kyle Hancock, Matt Jolliffe, Peter Mashinter 4 and Garry McNeven 4. Assists went to John Bilik 4, Peter Mashinter 3 and Tim Van Hinte 4.

Alcott ladies split points

The Gordon Alcott Ladies "C" Inter County team shared the points with Wallace Park on June 29.

Deb Koster and Norma Maynard lost with 5-7, 6-4. Trudy Roy and Joanne Van Den Hoek in three sets had 6-4, 5-7, 4-6. Karin Wilson and Daiga Zelek won with 6-4, 6-1. Margot Prior and Ouida Graville also won 6-2, 6-4. Pat McCarthy and Paddy Brown treated the teams to strawberries and cream which went over well with Joanne Van Don Hoek's shortcake.

The "A" team played at Wallace Park and did not fare well.
